Provinces Receive Federal Refusal Of Freight Inquiry

Ottawa Also Declines to Defer Application of Increased Rates

EDMONTON, July 7 (CP).—The Dominion Government has rejected bids for a Royal Commission investigation into Canadian freight rates, Premier Manning announced today.

The Premier said Ottawa's answer to arguments raised by seven provinces ... all but Ontario and Quebec — arrived in a letter from Prime Minister Mackenzie King. He termed it "totally unsatisfactory to the people of Alberta."

The letter also was said to contain a Federal refusal to defer application of a 21-per-cent increase in freight rates, authorized earlier this year by the Board of Transport Commissioners.

The move to have the new rates suspended and an inquiry into means of breaking down rates so that their effect may be without "regional discrimination" was launched by the Premiers of the seven provinces, acting for their Governments and business organizations.

Commenting on the Federal decision, Mr. Manning said only that it was "unsatisfactory" and that there likely would be consultation between the Premiers as to their next move.

WITHHOLDS TEXT

He declined to release the text of Mr. King's letter, saying that "undoubtedly" Premiers of the other provinces participating in the argument — presented in Ottawa in April — had heard similarly.

Mr. Manning said Premier Angus MacDonald of Nova Scotia had been named their spokesman by the Premiers and had presented their case to the Cabinet. Details of Mr. King's reply, therefore, "more appropriately" would come from Mr. MacDonald than from him.

May Hold Talks On Action

HALIFAX, July 7 (CP).—Premier Macdonald of Nova Scotia said tonight another conference of provincial premiers is necessary to decide action in opposing recent freight-rate increases.

"I think we will have to talk about it among ourselves and get a common view," we certainly won't let the thing stand as it is," he said. He said the conference might be another meeting or be conducted by telephone and telegraph.

Premier Byron Johnson of British Columbia declined to comment immediately on the Federal Government's action.

In Winnipeg, Premier Garson of Manitoba said he saw a "possible solution" to the Federal Government's rejection of a Royal Commission investigation into Canadian freight rates.

But he declined to elaborate further until he had discussed the matter with other provincial premiers who had pressed for the inquiry.

"I conferred Tuesday with Premier Macdonald (Premier Angus Macdonald of Nova Scotia) by long distance 'phone on the matter, and that I am awaiting further word from him," said Mr. Garson.

Russia Blamed In Polish Issue

LONDON, July 7 (Reuters).—The British Government, rejecting a Polish protest against recommendations on Germany by the recent six-power London conference, has told the Polish Government that it considers Russia solely to blame for the absence of four-power accord on Germany.

(In Washington, the United States State Department also rejected Poland's protest against a plan to set up a separate Government in Western Germany.)

"Since the Polish Government is understood to support the policy of the Soviet Government towards Germany, the British Government does not understand on what grounds the Polish Government base their argument," the British note states.

Arabs Adamant in Stand Will Resume War Friday

CAIRO, July 7 (AP) — An Arab League spokesman said tonight the Palestine war between Jews and Arabs will be resumed Friday.

Israel was reported to have accepted Count Folke Bernadotte's proposal to extend the Palestine truce beyond the Friday deadline. The Arab league spokesman said, however, there would be no extension of the four-week truce.

Asked if his statement meant there would exist a truce, the Arab replied: "I mean nothing else."

Bernadotte, the United Nations mediator, has not received an official reply on the truce extension from either the Jews or Arabs. A well-informed source in Tel Aviv said, however, the Israeli Government is willing to continue the truce during further negotiations.

The informed source said Israel will not deal now with Bernadotte's proposals to internationalize Jerusalem and the Haifa port area. The Arabs already have rejected these proposals.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary-general of the Arab League, said the league will try to have its reply on the truce ready tomorrow.

In London the Foreign Office announced that five British subjects have been kidnapped in Jerusalem by Irgun Zvai Leumi, Jewish extremist group. A spokesman said the Government's office took a serious view of this and demanded their release at once. The British subjects said Britons were taken from a "building on which was hoisted the flag of the United National truce commission." He could not further identify the building.

The five Britons were employees of the Government in Jerusalem and not members of the truce commission.

U.N. Council Asks Truce Be Extended

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., July 7 (CP).—The United Nations Security Council voted today to appeal to Jews and Arabs to extend the truce in Palestine.

Russia, the Ukraine and Syria abstained when the council voted 8 to 0 for Britain's resolution. Tonight of the extension of the four-week cease-fire agreement which ends Friday, would be determined in consultation with Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator in Palestine.

The hot council session was topped by the walkout of Jamal Husseini of the Arab Higher Committee for a protested designation of Jewish representatives as of the "State of Israel" instead as of "Jewish Agency."

Five members of the council—including Canada—voted against Dimitri Manuilsky's ruling to term Ethan a representative of Israel. Seven votes of the 11-member council were necessary to overrule Manuilsky, council president and representative of the Ukraine.

Special Flood Session Opens

VANCOUVER, July 7 (CP).—Butcher Jimmy Smith closed his shop to go fishing when a buyers' strike brought sales to a standstill.

"It hurt to ask people to pay such fantastic prices," he said.

He is one of at least six Vancouver butchers who have shut their doors in face of mounting beef prices.

Well Mishap Drowns Three

TORONTO, July 7 (CP).—A passerby who tried to rescue two men from a gas-filled well to suburban North York, fell into the well himself and all three were drowned tonight.

The victims were Thomas Leadbeater and William Collins and the passer-by, John Donlan.

Police said Leadbeater went down into the well to clean it out and was overcome by gas. Collins, his son-in-law, went to his aid and was also overcome.

A short time later, Donlan, driving by, was attracted by sounds from the well. He climbed down into the well and the gas made him groggy. He shouted and drew the attention of Walter Cler, who threw down a rope and twice managed to pull Donlan part way to the surface.

On the third attempt Donlan lost his grip and fell into the water.

Building Safety Battle Cancels Fair at Willows

There will be no Fall exhibition at the Willows this year.

Ed Wayte, president of British Columbia Association, said yesterday that the association's Provincial Exhibition, scheduled to re-open September 11-18 for the first time since the war, has definitely been canceled.

Buildings used for the fair have been the centre of a three-cornered fight involving the association, Oak Bay Municipality and the Provincial Fire Marshal's Department.

The fire marshal's department said the fair buildings were unsafe, and refused to allow the fair to open until alterations are carried out.

SOUGHT PERMIT

Agricultural Association officials said the fire marshal's department had issued requests, not orders, and signified their intention of altering buildings so that they would be safe in case of fire. They recalled applying three months ago for a $15,000 building permit, and said they were still awaiting Oak Bay's reply. They blamed the municipality for blocking the fair.

Reeve R. A. Wootton of Oak Bay said the cancellation of this year's fair was not the result of municipal action. He said orders for alterations came from the Provincial Fire Marshal's Department, and not from the municipality.

He added that Oak Bay nevertheless does not want the fair within its boundaries: "We feel that the fair grounds should be moved somewhere else," he said. "They are not suitable to the municipality of Oak Bay. We're hoping to make the area residential.

"We are not opposed to the holding of a fair, and Oak Bay has already decided that it would be willing to contribute toward the establishment of a fair somewhere else outside the boundaries of the municipality," he said

Out of the mass of conflicting opinions, only one fact emerged: the fair will not be held this year. Mr. Wayte announced today that the 94-year-old event, held without interruption since except for periods during the two wars and after, will be resumed in 1949.

The Provincial Fire Marshal's Department, demanded rewiring, additional fire exits and bracing up of three "dead-end" water lines within 60 days if the fair was to open. The department also demanded demolition of six stable buildings within 90 days, and recommended a sprinkler system to every building.

W. H. Pearce, managing secretary, said there will be "no danger to the public at all" if the association is allowed to carry out its proposal of alterations which he said would include additional exits and rewiring.

Must Wait For Medals

OTTAWA, July 7 (CP). — World War veterans will have "to wait several years" for their Victory Medals, the Master of the Mint said tonight.

Measures Would Allow Government Free Hand In Flood Relief Expense

Cabinet May Borrow $5,000,000, Appoint Administrative Boards

Measures giving the Government a virtual "blank cheque" to spend whatever money is considered necessary were introduced yesterday at the opening sitting of the special flood session of the Legislature.

The Government also would be given authority to borrow $5,000,000 and wide powers to appoint and pay administrative boards.

Members got down to work with a minimum of ceremony following the Throne Speech, delivered by Chief Justice Gordon McGregor Sloan, Provincial Administrator, acting in the absence of Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks. Premier Byron Johnson gave a review of the flood situation and the action taken by the Government to combat it.

The House resolved to have three sittings daily until Friday or until business is concluded—from 10.30 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 2.30 p.m. to 5 p.m. and from 8.30 p.m. until adjournment.

BILLS INTRODUCED

This was followed by introduction of the major bills, the Flood Relief Act, providing for rehabilitation and relief work through the Province, and the Fraser Valley Dyking Board Act.

Another bill provides that members will forego their sessional indemnity and will receive only actual expenses

In addition to authorizing virtually unlimited expenditure, the Flood Relief Act permits the Government to enter into "any agreement" with the Dominion for sharing the costs of Fraser Valley rehabilitation. It may enter into agreements with any public authority for carrying out rehabilitation work and may contribute or lend money to any such authority with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

MAY PAY FOR WORK

Municipal councils may enter into agreements with the Province for reclamation work and may pay for such work as part of their ordinary expenditures without approval by ratepayers at the polls.

The Cabinet may appoint any boards deemed necessary, set their pay and confer upon them any powers considered necessary.

Specifically the "Fraser Valley Rehabilitation Authority," composed of W. L. Macken and Col. D'Arcy Baldwin, and which was appointed previously by the Government, will be charged with reclamation work for the Fraser Valley and the Cabinet is empowered to ratify any action taken by the authority up to now.

The Government is permitted to set up similar boards for rehabilitation work in other parts of the Province and to set their pay.

The Lieutenant - Governor - in - Council may also make any other regulations required for the functioning of any board appointed.

Wide powers are given to the Fraser Valley Diking Board, charged with the job of repairing, constructing and reconstructing dikes to the Fraser Valley under the agreement with the Federal Government.

It will have power, without giving notice to any person, to enter upon and take possession of, and use for any time as the board may deem necessary, any lands required to carry out its job. It may also expropriate lands, but must pay compensation.

BOARD SUPREME

In the event of any conflict with any drainage of diking district, any municipality, improvement district or any village municipality, the powers of the new board supersede the powers of any of these bodies.

It will be financed out of consolidated revenue of the Province or from the $5,000,000 loan authorized in the Flood Relief Act.

The board will not be liable for any damage caused by flooding and may not be subject to any action by way of mandamus or injunction. Both Dominion and Provincial Cabinets may give it direction, however.

Decision Delayed On Rents

OTTAWA, July 7 (CP) — A difference of opinion between Cabinet members is holding up final decision on whether controls on domestic rentals will be lifted next March, it was learned here tonight.

A source said, some members of the Cabinet favor the removal of the controls which were brought into effect late in 1940. Others have suggested that Finance Minister Abbott retain the controls for another year at least.

New homes built since January, 1947, are not affected by the controls and the source said if building picks up before the year is out, it may have a great deal to do with the lifting of the controls.

"If new construction really gets into stride, it will probably mean no more rental controls by the end of next March," the source said.

The source would not say whether the Federal Government will notify the provinces by October 1 of its intentions of retiring from its field of controls on domestic rentals April 1, 1949.

However, he thought it likely that the provinces would be informed soon of the Government's final decision. This would give the provinces plenty of notice and enable them to decide whether they wished to continue the controls themselves to some degree.

The Ottawa Evening Citizen said today the Federal Government will notify the provinces by October 1 that it is retiring from the field of controls on domestic rentals April 1, 1949.

Russian Planes Sighted In Britain's Air Corridor

BERLIN, July 7 (AP).—British authorities announced tonight that five Russian Yak fighter planes were sighted Tuesday in the British air corridor between Berlin and Hamburg.

British military government headquarters said a British European Airways pilot spotted the planes.

An announcement said one of the fighters "peeled off and flew within the comparatively close vicinity of the B.E.A. pilot's aircraft."

"The Yak pilot did not fly dangerously near," the statement added.

It declared "no importance or significance is attached to the report."

This was the first report of a British or American pilot sighting Russian fighters since the air lift to Blockaded Berlin got under way.

Two United States flyers reported "continuous interference" with two planes while flying over the Berlin sector en route to Berlin

In an interview Lieut. Patrick Rogers and Sgt. Jack Smith said it appeared "deliberate" to them.

American pilots last week reported for the first time a strange beam pulling them off their courses.

British military government headquarters officially denied that the beam originated from the Soviet Yak, in the Western sector, by broadcasting flying tests bringing supplies to the city.

Headquarters added, however, that

U.S. Vessels Move East

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP).—The major portion of the United States Mediterranean fleet is moving into the Eastern Mediterranean at a time when tensions between Jews and Arabs threaten to resume.

However, Defence Secretary Forrestal told a press conference today there was "no significance" to the movement.

"They are according to schedule They have no reference to any crisis or event, days or weeks," he said.

The disposition of the United States task fleet was given by the navy in answer to questions based on overseas dispatches saying seven ships had left Naples and Istanbul amid considerable mystery.

L.P.P. on Party Line In Moscow-Tito Issue

OTTAWA, July 7 (CP).—Canadian Communists are going right down the party line with Moscow in its tiff with Yugoslavia's Tito.

Premier Johnson of Alberta said in the Commons in last shadow-boxing with Tsgeniav Reds, Canada's labor-farmers appear to have no such doubts.

The remarks made clear in a statement released to the press by the national committee of the Labor-Progressive Party, the successor to the Communist Party of Canada.

Just in case anyone should get any ideas that the Canadian Reds were on the wagging report of Communists there and the "inspired attacks" of Yugoslavia's prime Min.

It goes on to say that "Canadian Communists are supremely confident that the Communists say, but it goes on to add that "Canadian Communists are supremely confident that the Communists say, but it goes on to add that "Canadian Communists are supremely confident that the Communists say, but it goes on to add

Open Headquarters for Eisenhower

DESPITE his repeated statement that he will not stand for public office, workers for Gen. Dwight Eisenhower are shown at work in new Eisenhower for President quarters which takes up entire floor of Philadelphia Stock Exchange. They have been working well in advance of influx of delegates to Democratic national convention scheduled to open in Philadelphia, Pa., on July 12. Sentiment for nomination of Eisenhower as United States President has spread like wildfire since organization of anti-Truman movement.

Returning Yugoslav Workers Report Albanian Ill-Treatment

BELGRADE, July 7 (Reuters) — A Russian Communist Party decision not to send delegates to the Fifth Congress of the Yugoslav Communist Party meeting here July 21 came as a profound shock to many Yugoslavs.

First news of the boycott, because of the Yugoslav Party's exclusion from the Cominform, came from Moscow Radio and the B.B.C.

A spokesman for [illegible] Yugoslav railway workers, expelled from Albania following the Cominform criticisms today claimed they had been ill treated and insulted by the Albanians.

The spokesman for the group, first to arrive back in Yugoslavia, said their food supplies had been cut and they had been escorted to the frontier by armed guards.

SYMPATHY SHOWN

The Albanian population, he claimed, had shown sympathy and friendship despite the official action, and Albanian families attempted to feed them after the authorities had blocked their food supplies and closed their messes.

In Belgrade, a woman who arrived with a number of child evacuees aboard a Yugoslav train from Tirana, Albanian capital, also spoke of maltreatment and declared that many of the Yugoslav children had had to live on nothing but a little flour and water for three days after the Albanians cut off their food supplies.

BELGRADE, July 7 (Reuters).—The Yugoslav Government has agreed to a four-power request to call a conference [illegible] in Belgrade July 30.

The United States, Russia, Britain and France asked Yugoslavia in notes yesterday to call the meeting on the question of future control of the Danube River, Europe's most important inland waterway.

The Yugoslav decision to call the Danubian conference was disclosed in a Government announcement reported in London by Tanjug, the official Yugoslav news agency.

The meeting will bring together representatives of the Big Four Powers and the Danube neighbors. They are Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, Yugoslavia, Czecho-Slovakia and Austria.

In announcing readiness to serve as host for the meeting, Premier-Marshal Tito's Government assigned to Austia only an observer's role with an "advisory note."

The task of the conference is to work out a new agreement on freedom of Danube shipping for the countries which have ports on the river.

Says Soviet Troops Move In Romania

MILAN, Italy, July 7 (AP).—Il Corriere Lombardo printed an unconfirmed dispatch today saying Russian motorized troops have made important moves in Romania since Monday.

The dispatch, from the Trieste Free Territory, said the Russian troops "would go into action immediately before or after the Yugoslav Comunist congress opens July 21 in Belgrade."

Britain Plans Defence Against Atomic Warfare

LONDON, July 7 (Reuters). — Legislation giving the British Government wide powers to reorganize civil defence to meet the problems of atomic warfare is expected to be introduced at the Autumn session of Parliament.

Local authorities and planning committees have been considering Government proposals for a civil force ready to act at a moment's [illegible]

Three-fold basis of the plan is:

1. A mobile, well-trained full-time force available for use in any part of Britain.

2. Local forces, mainly part-time but with some whole-time nucleus, sufficiently mobile to serve anywhere within a more restricted area.

3. A well-prepared citizen force in which each man would know how to take simple measures for the protection and care of himself, his family and his neighbors.

The Government today disclosed that defence manpower now totals 1,166,000, including 831,000 in the armed forces.

Of this figure the navy strength is 144,000, the army's 532,000 and the air force 255,000.

The civil total is 335,000 including those engaged on production, research development, and works under the defence ministries, but does not include civil defence personnel.

Future plans are expected to include the training of all servicemen in civil defence so that they in turn may be able to train and lead civilians.

More than 3,000,000 air shipments [illegible] handled on domestic air lines last year, an increase of 16.3 per cent over 1946.

Will Complain Of Bus Service

Councillor F. A. Gibbs told Oak Bay Council last night he will carry to the Greater Victoria Transportation Committee the complaint of citizens that there was no adequate bus service between the southern sections of the municipality and the Uplands.

"I cannot see why we cannot have transportation across our own municipality" he said.

He explained citizens had to journey to points close to town to trans- [illegible]

He said the B.C. Electric would not give its patrons more than one transfer making the difficulty even more involved.

Health Conditions Good Says Oak Bay M.H.O.

Health conditions in Oak Bay are "extremely good," Dr. W. P. Walker, medical officer of health, told Oak Bay Council last night. He said he was maintaining a close watch to prevent an outbreak of poliomyelitis.

"Since the opening of our Summer playgrounds I have visited them to impress upon supervisors that no children should be allowed to play so hard that they become exhausted," he said. "Play for children can be without strain."

Dr. Walker said it was his belief that polio struck hardest at children who had become tired out through play.

Saskatchewan Farm Act Faces Appeal Before Privy Council

LONDON, July 7 (CP).—Hearing of an appeal which will decide whether the Government of Saskatchewan has the power to enact protective legislation for farmers was opened today by the Law Lords of the Privy Council in a lofty, book-lined room on Downing Street, adjoining the Prime Minister's residence.

Tall, white-haired Viscount Simon, Britain's former Chancellor of the Exchequer, bowed and smiled as P. C. Cronkite of Saskatoon, rose to present Saskatchewan's C.C.F. Government's case that Section 8 of the Farm Security Act of 1944 is not beyond the power of the Provincial Legislature.

Six other Canadian lawyers, including J. L. Ilsley, former minister of finance, wearing the conventional wig and black gown required by British courts, sat facing the veteran law lords across the horseshoe-shaped table.

While the term "C.C.F." is carefully excluded from the proceedings, Cronkite said that the Farm Security Act was designed by the Government of Saskatchewan to make the mortgage holder take the same risks as the farmer—sharing losses in bad years, and profits in good years.

He said that Section 6 referred to agreements for sale and mortgages of farm land only. It became applicable with respect to farmlands where there was "failure of grain crops" grown on mortgaged farm land or on farm land sold under an agreement for sale due to causes beyond the farmer's control.

Cronkite said that the Supreme Court of Canada, May 13, 1947, ruled that Section 6 was ultra vires of the Province because it was legislation relating to interest, a matter within the exclusive legislative authority of the Dominion Government under the British-North America Act.

Here Lord Simon interjected: "Is there anything in the act concerning the reduction of interest?"

"In my submision, no," Cronkite answered. "We maintain that this section was validly enacted by the Legislature of Saskatchewan as legislation in relation to agriculture."

Coalition Wins Dutch Vote

AMSTERDAM, July 7 (AP).—The Communists lost two of their ten Lower Chamber parliamentary seats in today's general elections, in The Netherlands, complete returns showed late tonight. The Catholic People's party retained its place as the country's No. 1 political group.

The middle-of-the-road Catholics won 1,531,326 votes of the 4,933,735 cast, thus retaining its 32 seats. The Labor party, partners of the Catholics in the Coalition Government, polled 1,262,366 votes and lost two of its 29 seats.

Gains by Rightist groups—the Conservative anti-revolutionary (Calvinist), Christian Historical (Protestant) and Freedom (Conservative) parties—cut into the wide majority gained by the Catholic-Labor Coalition in the last elections in 1946.

The Coalition of the Catholic People's and Labor parties held 61 seats. Party distribution in the outgoing Parliament was:

Catholic People's (Centre) 32.
Labor 29.
Conservative Anti-Revolutionary (Calvinist) 13.
Communist 10.
Christian Historical (Protestant) 8.
Party of Freedom (Conservative) 8.
Reformed Orthodox (Protestant) 2.

Police Halt Display By Czechs

PRAGUE, July 7 (CP) — Former President Eduard Benes was cheered again today in the street of Prague. This time police squads broke up the short-lived demonstration.

Most of the crowd massed in front of the newspaper Svobodne Slovo beneath a huge electric display for the 11th Sokol Athletic Congress, and shouted "Long Live Our President Benes."

Police ordered the demonstrators to disperse. When this failed, they moved through the crowd, arms linked. Some police carried small pistols as usual, but no weapons were used. Prague police do not carry clubs.

Street cars were ordered to move through the square without stopping at the principal station near where the crowd had gathered.

The anti-Government sentiment apparently was touched off yesterday when a parade by the Sokol Athletic Organization marched through the street cheering former President Eduard Benes. They withheld their cheers as they passed the reviewing stand where Communist Premier Klement Gottwald sat.

MILAN, Italy, July 7 (Reuters).—The Czecho-Slovak ambassador and first secretary in Budapest arrived in Venice today, declaring they had abandoned their posts because they did not agree with Czecho-Slovak President Klement Gottwald's policy.

Wheat Cars Crowd Yards

KANSAS CITY, July 7 (AP).—The greatest jam of loaded wheat cars in the history of the Greater Kansas City market today brought a warning of a possible embargo on further shipments to this rail centre of the great United States wheat belt.

Operators of the 17 elevators in this market, meeting late today to discuss the emergency, agreed to step up the unloading pace to 1,400 cars daily.

ESCAPES BEAR

Hats can be used for other purposes than headgear, Prospector Peter Rodstrom of Victoria has discovered.

Rodstrom used his hat to escape from a bear 150 miles north of Yellowknife, he related in a letter to his wife at Cordova Bay.

He met the bear when he was returning, unarmed, to camp. He promptly scaled the closest tree. In an effort to distract the animal, Rodstrom took off his hat and threw it on the ground behind the bear. The ruse worked; the bear turned around and ambled toward the hat, and Rodstrom jumped down and climbed a higher tree until the animal went away.

Mayhew Detained On Trip to City

Hon. R. W. Mayhew, Federal Minister of Fisheries, and M.P. for Victoria, who was scheduled to arrive at Patricia Bay Friday, has been detained, it was learned last night.

The City Council, Chamber of Commerce and other civic groups are planning a reception on his arrival.

Many Attend Stampede As Cloudy Skies Clear

CALGARY, July 7 (CP).—A California cowboy with a speedy pony and greased lightning in his hands, today came within one-fifth of a second of the world's record for steer decorating to provide the major thrill for a Citizens' Day crowd at the Calgary Stampede.

Light rain and overcast skies, which had threatened to cause a sharp decline in attendance at the third day of the six-day event, cleared to give Calgary workers enjoying the regular civic half-holiday a chance to attend.

Verne Castro, of Richmond, Calif., dived from his mount to the horns of a galloping longhorn steer and slipped a red ribbon over the point in 3 3-5 seconds to win first go-round money in the event.

His time was just one-fifth of a second off the official world's record set by Mel Fenstad in 1940 and tied on three occasions since. The 3 3-5 figure also equalled the fastest time recorded at the 1947 Stampede.

A second Californian, Ed Coffey, of Burbank, became overwhelming favorite to capture the North American calf-roping championship when he hog-tied a frisky calf in 17 3-5 seconds—best time of the day. Coffey earlier won the first go-round of the event.

Bob Gatsman, of Waterford, Calif., was second with a time of 19 1-5 seconds, and Bud Dennis, Levelland, Texas, third at 19 3-5.

Main interest today centred on the bareback bronk riding competition with Bill Linderman, Red Lodge, Montana, riding into top money.

Linderman rode loose and wild to gain a two-point lead over the 348 posted by Bob Duce, Cardston, Alta., earlier in the week.

Wilf Gerlitz, of Black Diamond, Alta., maintained his lead in the novice saddle-riding competition to win the first round.

Johnny Phalen, of Red Deer, Alta., made a determined bid to retain the world chuckwagon championship tonight when he streaked around the intricate course in 1 minute 15 seconds flat. Slim Fenton, of Pincher Creek, Alta., ended in a tie with Phalen.

Porch Swallows Open Wide for Mama

—Colonist Photo

NESTED cosily above light meter on front veranda of James Mermod, 3340 Oak Street, these two-week-old swallows ignore Colonist photographer at meal time. Mother swallow, on left, is all a-flutter and shows no desire to stop long enough to pose. This is second year swallows have made their home on Mr Mermod's light meter. Last Autumn he threw their nest away, but swallows started from scratch this Spring and built it all over again. They have a wide-mouthed family of six, two hidden from camera.

Free Hay Feature In Oak Bay

There are untold quantities of cut grass lying on Oak Bay boulevards suitable for use as hay, Municipal Engineer A. S. G. Musgrave told Oak Bay Council last night. Although he had invited dairymen to come and take away as much of it as they wanted free of charge none seemed to be interested, he said.

"They're paying [illegible] a ton for hay this year," he advised.

"It's amazing," commented Reeve R. A. V. Wootton.

"If they got free hay they wouldn't be able to put up the price of milk," said Councillor George Murdock.

Mr. Musgrave said a shortage of trucks had made it almost impossible for the municipality to cart away the grass up until now. He reported the grass is being raked up.

Asks Traffic Halt For Youngsters

Traffic should be stopped when school children cross the streets, Councillor George Murdock told Oak Bay Council last night before passage of his resolution calling on the Union of British Columbia Municipalities to press for a reduction in the number of hours of controlled speed of traffic in school safety zones.

Councillor Murdock stated the Motor Vehicles Act now held school zones in effect from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. regardless of whether or not there were any children in the vicinity. He suggested the hours be altered to be in effect from 8.15 a.m. to 9.15 a.m., 11:45 a.m. to 1.15 p.m. and 3.30 p.m. to 3.30 p.m.

He advocated a change in the local by-law which would call for a full-stop of traffic at certain designated intersections when children were crossing.

Pilot's Trophy

Vancouver Island flyers will try for Webster Trophy, pictured above, awarded annually to Canada's outstanding amateur pilot. Victoria eliminations will be run off at Patricia Bay Saturday and Sunday, when pick of local flyers compete for chance in national tryouts. Competitions, sponsored by Royal Canadian Flying Clubs Association, are open to all pilots except those trained to wings standard in R.C.A.F., or commercial pilots engaged in flying professionally within past five years. Entries will be accepted by Victoria Flying Club up to noon Saturday. Competitors need not be flying club members.

SITUATION SERIOUS

VANCOUVER, July 7 (CP).—Mayor Charles Jones, who underwent a grave lung operation Tuesday, was still in a serious condition today.

Hospital attendants described his condition only as "fairly good."

H. W. Young Sinks First Hole-in-One At Gyro Club Solarium Carnival

H. W. Young, 1468 Finlayson Street, sank a hole-in-one to win the $15 first prize at opening night of the Gyro Solarium Carnival at Central Junior High School last night.

Mrs. Mary Fraser, 1134 View Street, won second prize of $10 with a shot three inches from the cup.

Last year's winner, Herbert Cook, 1023 Pandora Avenue, won $5 third prize for placing 13 inches from the cup.

Biggest money winner of the evening was H. M. Smith, 2710 Tudor Avenue, who won the $50 daily tombola prize.

RAIN STOPPED

After a threatening drizzle stopped early in the evening, more than 1,000 people turned out and boosted proceeds toward the $12,000 objective. Golf, bingo, wheel-spinning, darts, [illegible] got their share of attention.

All money collected will go toward building of nurses' residences at Queen Alexandra Solarium.

The ten golf tees were the busiest spots on the grounds. In addition to the cash prizes, the golfers were trying for the grand prize, a Bendix washer. Each night three winners qualify for the finals, to be held Saturday night.

NEW CLUBS

Golfers used new clubs, recently purchased by the Gyros. They had their choice of irons number seven, eight and nine, either right or left handed. Colored spots on the balls identified them.

Cubs and Scouts from 2nd Cathedral Troop and Pack, directed by Scoutmaster Robert MacMillan, collected balls, sorted them and generally helped supervise the contest. Sometimes they had to go 100 feet beyond the pin to collect strongly-hit drives.

Ald. Frank Milliner, representing the city, and Logan Mayhew, president of the Solarium Board of Directors, officially opened the carnival.

There Was Smoke But Little Fire

THERE was lots of smoke but little fire when city firemen were called out late yesterday afternoon.

A tin of varnish, set inside another tin containing water, was on a stove at the back of the Victoria Electric Motors & Appliances, 1010 Blanshard Street. The water evaporated and the varnish caught fire, sending up billows of black smoke.

A passer-by phoned the fire department, but everything was under control when fireman arrived.

Mulch "Essential" To Good Garden

A good mulch is essential to a good garden, W. Goddard told a meeting of the Victoria Horticultural Society recently in the City Hall.

"It conserves moisture and keeps down weeds," he said. "The bacterial activity underneath breaks down the mulching material into valuable plant food."

Mr. Goddard told members that various materials may be used as a mulch, including grass clippings, bracken and fir needles and sawdust.

Drive to Aid Children's Ward Being Stepped Up at Jubilee

Royal Jubilee Hospital's campaign for $40,000 to convert the Strathcona Wing into a children's ward is being "stepped up," Dr. J. L. Murray Anderson reported yesterday.

Total collected to date is $13,000, said Dr. Anderson, medical superintendent of the hospital.

"The campaign has been on for a month and the wing is now completely cleaned out inside ready for construction," he said.

"Work on the wing will begin as soon as possible and continue while the money lasts. We would like to have it finished by Fall, but it depends on finances," Dr. Anderson added.

The Children's Ward Auxiliary of the hospital will hold a tag day soon to raise money for the campaign, and the Provincial Government will be asked for a grant.

"But we still need more from local sources," said Dr. Anderson, "and will welcome any donations."

BERRY SEASON

Season for loganberries and raspberries is expected to be at its height within the next three days, C. M. Smith, area supervisor of the Dominion-Provincial Farm Labor Service, said yesterday.

"Most of the loganberries and raspberries won't be ready for a day or two," he said. "We expect to be busy getting pickers out to the fields about the end of the week."

Mr. Smith said the strawberry season was now nearly over.

DRAWS FINES

Fines totalling $75 or 15 days in jail were imposed on Herbert Hall, 1530 Richmond Avenue, when he pleaded guilty in police court yesterday on three rental control charges.

Hall was fined $25 on each of two charges of failing to have suites appraised by the Wartime Prices and Trades Board to fix the rental, and charging a higher than reasonable price. He was fined $25 for collecting a rental in excess of the fixed amount.

Blind Baby To See In One Eye

"Baby Lillian," 18-month-old daughter of a Victoria couple, will be able to see, but only with her left eye.

Through arrangements made by the Victoria Lions Club, the little girl has recently undergone a second eye operation at the Royal Jubilee Hospital. She had been blind since birth.

"She is coming along very well, gaining weight, and is happy," the eye specialist who is doing the operations free of charge, said yesterday. Hospital expenses are being borne by the Lions Club.

Dave Meharey, acting on behalf of the service club, said yesterday the infant may leave the hospital Friday or Saturday and return to her home for a month or more. At the end of that time she will undergo another eye examination and possibly one more operation.

EXPRESSES THANKS

The board of governors of the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children in Portland, has expressed "sincere thanks and appreciation to the Victoria Girls' Pipe Band for its recent performance there during the Rose Festival.

"I don't believe there is anything that delights the children more than an unusual show such as yours," wrote Harvey Wells, secretary. "The children do enjoy this variation from their daily routine."

The band will entertain in the Veterans' Hospital tonight.

FISH STOLEN

Young pranksters are believed responsible for nightly fishing raids on goldfish ponds.

Mrs. A. E. Underwood, 1215 Pembroke Street, reported to police that six large goldfish had been taken from her pond. Another woman said that her pond had been raided and more fish taken.

Children in the district are suspected of building their own goldfish pond and raiding ponds to stock it.

City Veterans To Receive Increase Soon

War veterans in receipt of allowances under the War Veterans' Allowance Act will receive the $10 per month increase, recently authorized by the Federal Government, before the end of July, S. H. Okell, assistant district administrator of the Department of Veterans' Affairs, said yesterday.

Mr. Okell said he had received word that adjusting cheques, retroactive to October 1, 1947, are expected to go into the mails during the latter part of July.

"It is expected the increases will be automatic in the great majority of cases, but where there is some doubt as to a pensioner's financial status there may be some delay," he explained.

Mr. Okell said single veterans in receipt of allowances, prior to the increase, were receiving $30 per month; veterans' widows, $30 per month; and married veterans, $60 per month. The new legislation will result in a $10 increase across the board.

Fuel Dealers Get Warning

Saanich is having trouble with East Indian fuel dealers.

W. A. Georgeson, recently-appointed trade licence collector, has asked the municipal council for instructions in dealing with licence-dodging wood men.

Councillors endorsed his suggestion that offenders should be given two warnings and then prosecuted.

Mr. MacDonald Calls It a Spade

RT. Hon. Malcolm MacDonald's blunt definition of the pressure tactics of the one per cent militant Communists who he asserts are trying for the overthrow of constitutional government in Malaya is timely, and it is corroborated by many similar evidences throughout the world since the Cominform returned openly to its professed mission. The slugging tactics adopted by the Communists in China and more recently in the Federated Malay States differs only in form from the process of boring from within which has been employed in the former Balkan States. Both have the same end in view, the total subjection of the governed.

The conflict between Yugoslavia, and more recently Czecho-Slovakia, and the Cominform has brought some of these methods out into the open. There has been an obvious attempt on the part of Communist-dominated satellites in Eastern Europe to howl down the objecting states. So far, however, these have stood their ground, and before the issue is ended the Cominform may have a real Balkan tangle on its hands. Freedom and independence have been fighting words in the Balkans for more than a century, and it is not likely that any sudden change will have taken place in that.

Coupled with what is happening in Berlin and throughout Western Europe, there is a good deal of evidence to suggest that the Communists are making a last bid for civil disruption before the Marshall plan and the Union of Western States have become consolidated. To do that, however, they have had to disclose their hand. Tiffs as in the Balkans have forced the truth to the surface for all to see. Wherever that happens free people understand what is involved in the Cominform's platform and they will want none of it. Mr. MacDonald has called the turn in Malaya without mincing words.

Ne'er the Twain Shall Meet, Says Mr. Howe

THE discovery made by the Victoria City Council that the Dominion Government undertook 77 years ago to build a Trans-Canada highway is interesting as an example of forgotten promises, but it is not likely to bring the much-needed link between East and West any closer to reality.

To the growing demand from all over the Dominion for the construction of a trans-continental highway fit to carry modern vehicles Ottawa continues to turn a deaf ear. Shortly before Parliament prorogued Mr. Howe told the House of Commons in effect that the project would have to await a major depression. A corollary would appear to be no depression, no highway.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Howe did not say positively that a highway would be built as a depression project. His words were: "If we see any signs of widespread unemployment, we'll make a blueprint"—whatever that may mean.

In its highway communications outlook the Dominion Government still shows the mentality of the horse-and-buggy days. Before the advent of fast motor transportation it was logical for roads to be the responsibility of the provinces. It still is where purely provincial movement is involved, but if this country is ever to have a coast-to-coast highway worthy of the name, Ottawa must build it. Jurisdictional difficulties should not be insuperable, though the Federal Government apparently likes to think they are.

It is galling and costly to the individual and the Dominion for motorists to have to go south to traverse the continent with speed and comfort. It is bad business whatever way one looks at it—and especially so when Canada is spending millions to attract United States car owners north of the border.

Perhaps a Canadian Dictionary Is Needed

CANADA is popularly known as the bridge between the English and American way of doing things. The position has its merits, but it involves corresponding handicaps also. Take the English language, which was discussed here the other day by a visiting American professor of speech. While commending Canadians on their speaking habits, he pointed out that citizens of the United States do not speak English; they speak American.

This is not so extreme a view as it might seem. Language across the border is still recognizable as English, but undoubtedly the American people have devised many speech forms of their own and their idioms are particularly indigenous to themselves. Each year sees the further development of a new branch of English adaptable to their own preferences and peculiarities. There is a definite cleavage from the traditional practice of spoken English as it has come across the Atlantic.

Caught between two fires, so to speak, the Canadian is apt unconsciously to make his own compromise. Both the British and the American influence are penetrating, in speech as in other fields. A citizen of this country, who has to keep in touch with both the United Kingdom and the United States, is sometimes hard put to remember which phrase or word is most suitable to the occasion. Some day the cure might even rest in compiling a dictionary of Canadian language!

Letters and Excerpts

Letters to the editor on any topic of genuine public interest are welcome if they are brief, accurate and fair. No letter will be inserted, in whole or in part, except over the proper signature and address of the writer. Unsolicited correspondence cannot be returned.

EUTHANASIA

Sir,—If Mrs. Heywood is viewing the question of euthanasia from a purely material standpoint, and considers that human beings are on a par with animals, then her point of view may be correct. Any animal suffering incurable torture should, of course, be put out of its agony. Human beings, however, are far above animals, and have God-given laws to live by. They are able to discern right from wrong, and are bound to suffer from national or individual wrong-doing. The Law says, "Thou shalt not kill." Dare we break this law with impunity? Would it not be far better to seek for the cure rather than the palliative?

Another undeniable factor to be taken into consideration is, "While there is life, there is hope." Again, looking back at the early Church, one finds that all manner of disease was healed. Unfortunately this is now almost a lost art; but what has been done once, can be done again when we fulfill the conditions required.

COMMUTER'S PASS

Sir,—Now that the upward revision of the fare structure and the abolition of the pass are being requested by the B.C. Electric, I venture to draw to the attention of those Victorians interested in public transportation certain salient facts.

There can be little question that the B.C. Electric were determined to obtain the franchise in Victoria, even if the price came high. They bought out the only rival bus company who were in the field at a high figure. When the franchise was first submitted to the public, without the pass and turned down, one B.C. Electric official of no small eminence admitted to me that the attempted abolition of the pass was largely responsible for their failure to obtain the franchise. When next submitted to the public, the pass was reintroduced and the franchise granted. I suggest that all the evidence available leaves any rational-minded individual with the impression that no franchise would have been granted without the weekly pass being included in the conditions . . .

The pass cannot, per se, be unfair to anyone. At $1 per week it may be too favorable to pass-holders. If, however, the price were raised to $5 per week the pass-holders could hardly be described as obtaining immense benefits at someone else's expense. It would appear, then, that there must be a price at which the pass can be sold which would be fair to all concerned. With the facility the B.C. Electric have exhibited in estimating the average number of times per week pass-holders use their passes is it not a simple matter to estimate the value of the pass and sell it at that estimated price.

I have attempted to point out that the weekly pass can be retained with fair treatment to all. I go further, and suggest to the public that they insist it be retained and that they fight to prevent the B.C. Electric canceling a very vital element in the fare structure which they submitted to the public vote and on which they obtained their franchise.

In London

O Friend! I know not which way I must look
For comfort, being, as I am, opprest,
To think that now our life is only drest
For show; mean handy-work of craftsman, cook,
Or groom!—We must run glittering like a brook
In the open sunshine, or we are unblest:
The wealthiest man among us is the best:
No grandeur now in nature or in book
Delights us. Rapine, avarice, expense,
This is idolatry; and these we adore:
Plain living and high thinking are no more:
The homely beauty of the good old cause
Is gone; our peace, our fearful innocence
And pure religion breathing household laws.

Thinking Aloud

". . . of shoes—and ships—and sealing wax—of cabbages and kings."

By TOM TAYLOR

AN item of personal interest caught the eye the other day, namely, that the Egyptians have issued a stamp to commemorate the entry of their forces into Gaza on May 10 last. It took me back thirty years.

The stamp, valued at 10 milliemes and printed in bright green, shows a column of steel helmeted troops wind- [illegible] into the ancient city of the Philistines. For a moment I recalled a column of Egyptians trudging across that same desert, but they were camel wallahs, and I fear the only reward they ever got was a lot of harsh words.

This wouldn't be the first Egyptian column to enter the city of Gaza, a Philistine stronghold in Biblical times and a strategic centre of desert trade for time immemorial. Away back in 1500 B.C. the Egyptian monarch found Gaza a convenient base for operations against Syria, and in the centuries that followed his successors made numerous sorties to capture and hold the town.

So did many other ambitious monarchs, Napoleon included. Few places have been bandied about so ruthlessly as the little city in Palestine not far over the border from Egypt's eastern province.

ALEXANDER ANNOYED

Alexander the Great besieged it for five months, just two months less than the time Commonwealth forces lay outside Gaza's labyrinth of cactus and barbed wire defences in 1917. The delay annoyed Alexander, who rased the city after he entered. Allenby's troops did not follow his example when they in turn captured the town, their modern guns having done all the havoc that was required.

Gaza, which means "the strong," was one of the five chief cities of the Philistines, and it is remarkable for its continuous existence from the very earliest times. It was from Gaza that the Philistines issued to harass Israel, and with its possession now by the Egyptians history is repeating itself.

The Philistines, incidentally, were settled in the land of Canaan before the time of Abraham, and it was from them that Palestine took its name. There is some belief, also, that they came originally from Egypt, which might pose a nice question for antiquarians. Quite likely it bolsters Egyptian morale in their claims on the Holy Land.

Gaza, also, as you will remember from reading the Bible, was the place where Samson pulled the pillars down on his tormentors, after a spell in jail that enabled his hair to grow and restore his unusual strength.

FAMILIAR LOOK

Seen from a few miles distance thirty years ago the city was a collection of greyish roofs with the minaret of the Great Mosque showing conspicuously. I grew to know that look well, thinking all the while that some day I would see it close by. But then war, like life in Victoria, never proceeds exactly as anticipated.

When the time came ours was not one of the battalions making a head-on attack on Ali Muntar, as the city's chief hillock was named. We did an end run along the Mediterranean shoreline, ankle-deep in sand that made you wonder what was lower than a P.B.I. We left Gaza far behind as we cut in behind to say hello to the retreating Turks.

And six months later when we left Palestine for new pastures elsewhere Gaza was only a night-time glimpse from a box-car.

I don't recall any special regrets, however. Truth compels the admission that ancient history was not too prominent in the mind then.

Even the spot where Delilah robbed Samson of his locks didn't cause any great upsurge of interest, which now seems a pity. On the banks of the Wadi Ghuzzeh, a deep dry watercourse which ran to the sea just a few miles south of Gaza, there was a large red brick dwelling. At that time it was known as the Red House, and who was supposed to have inhabited it before we came along I don't remember.

SAMSON'S UNDOING

This was said to be the site of Samson's undoing, although the house where he tarried on that unfortunate occasion had of course been obliterated long, long since. However, someone may have been pulling our legs. You learn not to believe all you are told in the Near East.

Delilah, by the way, didn't cut off Samson's hair herself. It is a common assumption that she did, but according to the record she had a Philistine do it for her while the strong man slept on her knees. You can confirm this by looking up Judges 16 19.

Samson was a handy man to have around. He could take the jawbone of an ass and slay a thousand men. Tommy guns are nowadays considered to be more effective weapons than asses' jawbones, but even a modern Israelite so armed would have a job duplicating Samson. One does not doubt for a moment that the Egyptians are glad he isn't still roaming at large around Gaza.

An interesting place is this old Philistine city when you look back on its storied past. History's fondness for repetition makes time indivisible, and yet there are those who would belittle the continuity of human activity.

The steel-helmeted troops on Egypt's bright new green stamp symbolize much more than a fancy engraving on a minute piece of gummed paper.

Teepee to Let . . .

Moving Back to the Land

A SERIOUS back-to-the-land movement is something to be expected within the next few years, says The Printed Word. If it comes, it will not be an organized movement. It will be the result of some independent thinking by many different persons, rich, poor and mediumly well-to-do, who for different reasons will decide that for the one life they have to live, the small town or the farm offers a better return in satisfaction than the city can possibly give.

This is not to prophesy that the cities will become depopulated overnight. They will still attract from the countryside the same types of girls and boys that have flocked there in the past. They will come because some careers require a city atmosphere for both training and practice, because there are more opportunities for making a fortune; because there is a greater variety of choice in the matrimonial field; and generally, because life in a city is more exciting and therefore more appealing to adventurous youth.

Those who return or emigrate to the countryside from the city will be those who have sampled the metropolitan delights that appeal to them and have calmly decided that they are not worth the trouble they involve. The noise, traffic, smoke and crowds, they will decide, are not balanced by the museums, art galleries and libraries that may be reckoned to the credit of the city.

The dweller in the country or small town, they will also discover, has virtually all the amenities of living that can be found in a city home. Electrification of rural areas has made even farm chores much lighter than they were a generation ago. The rural dweller gets much more land for his money than his city neighbor and has more time to cultivate it.

The chief factor in driving out the present city dwellers, however, will not be financial. It will be the desire to get away from the pressure of too much history, too many events. Even if one restricts one's reading to the headlines, the grief of the world keeps pressing on one's private life. It can't be ignored, but few individuals are in a position to do much to relieve it, beyond contributing to organised charities. The country weeklies, quite properly, do not force their readers to become excited about things in which they cannot take part. The hard luck of the area is relieved without elaborate organization. The hard luck of the world takes second or third place to the abiding verities of seedtime and harvest, birth, marriage and death.

Floods Can Be Tamed

(Editorial in The Financial Post)

FLOOD damage in the Fraser Valley is now estimated at $30,000,000. When the heavy losses along other British Columbia rivers have been added as well as those along rivers on the Prairies and Eastern Canada the grand total for this year alone will run into a staggering sum.

Railways, bridges, roads, dams and dykes have been swept away and there has been enormous damage to houses, barns, sawmills and low-lying industrial property in many cities. But the biggest loss of all has been in the top soil washed off thousands of acres of rich farm land. The bridges, dams, mills and houses can be rebuilt or repaired, but the top soil has gone forever.

It is to be hoped that the costly lesson of this Spring will not be forgotten quickly. For years we have been casually talking flood control. But with a few notable exceptions, talking is about as much as we have done. It's going to be a long and expensive business, bringing these Spring floods under control, but it must be faced and started or we are going to have to abandon a lot of Canada.

Simply repairing the damage done will not be nearly enough. That is merely replacing the setting for another onslaught. Rivers must be straightened, dykes strengthened, huge dams built to slow the rush of water. Above all, trees must be planted by the millions wherever the ground is steep and wherever it can be spared from agriculture.

Fun, Fact and Fiction

There is a pedestrian crossing on Fort Street midway between Douglas and Blanshard Streets. Why not one on Yates? There might be less jay-walking then.

"I keep the house clean, cook the meals, wash the dishes, do the laundry, mend the clothes, and queue for food," she replied.

The official thanked her and made an entry in his notebook "Mrs Jones—housewife—no occupation."

REBELLION

I never wore my hair upswept,
Because it made you groan,
Or did my nails a screaming red,
For that brought forth a moan.
I let you tell me how to dress,
But now, my dear, I won't—
I've seen the way you look at girls
Who do the things I don't!

Observation Car:

By G. B.

IF some members of the Legislative Assembly who voted so gleefully for the 3 per cent "nuisance" sales tax listened to pungent remarks of the general public and merchants, they might begin to think of the next provincial election. . . . A reader composed the following poem about the No 3 street car line: "Gone is our street car; it's life at last is o'er. Many times it wakened old-timers from a snore. We will admit 'twas noisy, you'd hear it for a block, but hadn't it some good points? They'd need no alarm clock. The drivers were so courteous, so pleasant and so true, to help direct the strangers in any way they knew. And so goodbye old No. 3, that ran Niagara's span; it spent its life, and had to go, just as the life of man." . . . "There is one thing about you that I like. You never bother others with your troubles," a friend remarked to the Keating Squire. "Years ago I came across a framed motto in the office of a stock broker, and I never forgot it. The wording was something like this: 'Do not trouble friends with your troubles. Half of them are not interested. The other half are glad they are your troubles, not theirs'," the squire replied. . . . When Mark Twain was about to deliver a lecture to a women's club in New York he noticed a sign reading, "Chicken pie today, and Mark Twain." The famous author and humorist said to the chairman: "I do not mind your serving chicken pie, but don't you think I am entitled to top billing?" . . . Bill, the Broad Street barber, made several remarks that irked Barber Ben. Finally Ben retorted: "That is about enough from you. I think that you should wear feathers." Bill wanted to know why. "Because you walk like a duck, eat like an ostrich, and watch things like a hawk," Ben chuckled.

The name means "hundred legs," but the common house centipede has only 15 pairs, or 30 legs. Contrary to popular belief, the centipede is both harmless and helpful. It lives on insect pests, including roaches, which it destroys by stinging and injecting a deadly poison. Among the many outdoor varieties of centipedes, there are some with as many as 340 legs.

Looking Back

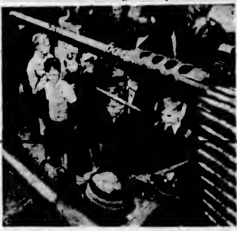
Through Colonist Files

25 YEARS AGO—The City Council will do what it can to assist the B.C. Electric Railway Company in making the Saanich interurban line pay, it has promised A. T. Goward, local manager, who said the peninsula line has never paid operating expenses since it was built.

50 YEARS AGO—W. T. Cooksley, the advertising commissioner for Victoria, who spent several months in the Eastern Provinces and New England States in the interests of Victoria's Yukon trade, has returned to town.

85 YEARS AGO—A statement has been put in circulation that the Imperial Government has sent out instructions to commence the erection of fortifications and a navy yard at Esquimalt. We are positively assured on the best authority that no such orders have been received.

Berlin Under Big Red Squeeze



HERE are two pictures from battered Berlin during crisis which Winston Churchill describes as creating conditions as dangerous as those of Munich in 1938 Crisis is result of apparent determined effort of Soviets to squeeze Western Powers out of German capital. Russian blockading of city, by rail and road, forced U.S. and British forces to supply Berlin zones by air In city, tension that prevails is best illustrated by scene above, where youngsters watch American patrol tank on street ready for action, ammunition in place and ready to feed to guns. Below, civilian Berliners, caught between big power pincers, have to do with even shorter rations than short ones they had Lines like this are everywhere To still further complicate situation, German currency has been reformed at rate of one new mark for ten of old

Smashing of Drug Ring Brings Constable Fame

VANCOUVER, July 7 (CP). — An obscure patrol-wagon driver today is one of Vancouver's best-known policeman.

He is Constable Joe Cotter, whose voluntary investigation led to the smashing of an international narcotic ring, and seizure of a $400,000 cache of Mexican heroin.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police made the seizure in a downtown rooming house after the 34-year-old city policeman had laid the groundwork

Two men were arrested and in court today bail was set at $20,000 for William Kushnik, 33-year-old Vancouver mechanic, and $7,500 for Ronald D. Dean, 24, a recent arrival from Toronto.

Both were remanded to July 15 on charges of possession of narcotics.

Today, investigation shifted to Oshawa, Ont., mailing point of a [illegible] of apparently pure heroin and 5,000 empty gelatine capsules in which the underworld distributes narcotics.

Police Chief Walter Mulligan said Kushnik had $2,880 in his possession when arrested.

MAY BE PROMOTED

Constable Cotter is the toast of the police department He has been on the force for nine years Now he wants to be a detective.

"He's a fine officer," said Chief Mulligan. "I think we'll see what we can do for him"

Cotter called it "just a lucky break." He became suspicious of one of the men, and kept watch on his room. He had an analysis made of containers taken from the room, and more observations were followed by a police trap which "netted" the two accused.

Man Felt in Prime In 1942 at 108

VANCOUVER, July 7 (CP). —Alvarez R. Haasburg is preparing for a second celebration of his 14th birthday.

The first celebration of that event was in 1848 This is his second lap around the course, and he's enjoying it every bit as much as the first one

He will be 114 on Thursday.

His only comment on the wear and tear of time is that he was in his prime six years ago, at 108

At that tender age he said he "was healthier and stronger than when I was 50"

Cracks in Communist Front Raise Doubts About Russia

Interpreting the News

By J. M. ROBERTS
A.P. Foreign Affairs Analyst

Recent demonstrations of independence within the Russian sphere have aroused speculation as to whether all is well with Eastern Europe's policeman himself.

Yugoslavia's refusal to be cowed by Russian disapproval was the first big crack in the Communist front Then the Finns apparently felt safe in voting against Communism. Now we have open demonstrations of anti-Communism to Czecho-Slovakia

Does Tito have any reason to be- [illegible] get him? Were the Finnish Communists, like those of Italy, left alone at the last moment to sink or swim without Moscow's support? Does Gottwald lack the strength for drastic action against the Czech patriots?

First reaction to the Yugoslav affair among close observers was that it would cause Russia to tighten the clamps throughout her sphere Reports of troop movements in Romania and Bulgaria and of impending purges have done nothing to weaken this reason.

But, as the United States ambassador to Belgrade said of the Yugoslave business, there's more than meets the eye

The Western Allies were much interested in the timing of their protests to Moscow over the Berlin situation. Whether this concerned more than the Berlin situation itself is not known

There were reports several months ago of disunity within Russia. Not only among sections of the population [illegible] Confidential reports from Moscow at the time cautioned American observers against any dependence on Russian disunity It was emphasized that, whatever might occur within the Politburo, it would always present a united front against foreigners

However, there has been wonderment for some time that the Russian Communist Party, supposed to meet every three years, has not been convoked since before the war Are there forces at work within Russia which cause the masters to fear such a meeting? We can't know

But we do know there are newly-developed cracks in the outer shell of Communism It is only natural to speculate on how deep they may go.

Peron Names U.S. As Likely Ally

BUENOS AIRES, July 7 (AP) — President Juan D Peron in a statement [illegible] "If there is war between Russia and the United States we will definitely be with the United States"

"We could not be in any other position because of our culture, religion and many other reasons," Peron said.

To Urge Change By Commons In U.K. Bill

LONDON, July 7 (CP).—The House of Commons tonight gave second reading without a division to the British Nationality Bill but it was apparent that the Government would press, in committee stage, for deletion of House of Lords' amendments to the bill.

Lord Hinchingbrooke, a Conservative, said the bill was wanted by "nobody but the Liberal Government of Canada"

The bill in its original form provided for creation of "citizens of the United Kingdom and the Colonies."

The Lords changed this to read "British subjects of the United Kingdom and the Colonies

In the Commons, Home Secretary Chuter Ede, criticizing the Lords' amendment while moving second reading, said it was intended that each self-governing country in the Commonwealth should have its own legislation to determine citizenship as done by the Canadian Citizenship Act of 1946

A Dominion would then declare that its citizens were British subjects and would recognize citizens of other Commonwealth countries as British subjects also

He said the change made by the Lords "wrecked the bill" which was drafted so that "our fellows in the Dominions can understand and can realize that we are, in fact, recognizing equality of status of the Dominions"

Canada May Follow Withdrawal Of Australia From Wheat Pact

OTTAWA, July 7 (CP).—The 36-nation wheat pact, announced last March, tonight appeared to be heading for an early downfall and a high Government official termed it a "sharp setback" to Canada's desire for more multilateral trade agreements.

The Government spokesman said indications were that Australia, one of the three producer countries involved in the pact, would announce her official withdrawal shortly.

It was understood here that the reason given for Australia's withdrawal stemmed from the fact that the United States did not ratify the agreement before Congress adjourned recently

"This would leave only Canada and the United States as the two producer countries in the agreement," the official said.

In that case there would be nothing left for Canada to do but to also withdraw from the agreement, the spokesman added He did not believe Canada would announce an official withdrawal but merely allow the agreement to lapse because of official recognition.

"It does not mean hardship for our wheat producers," said the spokesman. "United Kingdom already has indicated she is only too willing to take all the wheat we can supply, but it does mean a sharp setback for our desire to participate in as many multilateral trade agreements as possible."

Locates Vessel Lost at Sea

MANILA, July 7 (AP).—A United States army B-17 today spotted a fishing boat with seven persons aboard about 40 miles at sea

A life raft was dropped and three men were seen to clamber aboard. A small boat containing 10 persons was swept out to sea off Luzon on July 4, by high winds.

The B-17 crew said two bodies seemed to be floating alongside the distressed fishing boat.

Seven Rescued Off Lake Ship

LUDINGTON, Mich., July 7 (AP). —A Coast Guard plane rescued seven injured men from the crippled tanker Edgewater today after an explosion and fire in Lake Michigan.

Crew members still aboard ship radioed to rescue craft that the blaze had been brought under control and that they were not endangered by the small fires still burning

Coast Guard reports indicated five of the seven injured men were burned badly. The other two were reported to have suffered fractures.

The PBY which picked them up took off immediately for Chicago.

The oil-laden ship, owned by the Cleveland Tanker Co., was rocked by a blast when it was ten miles off Port Sable, about 23 miles southwest of Ludington.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner To Run for Liberal Leadership

OTTAWA, July 7 (CP).—Chunky, little James Garfield Gardiner today threw the race for the Liberal leadership wide open with a declaration he is ready to stand as a candidate before the party convention here next month

The 64-year-old agriculture minister made his bid for the succession to retiring Prime Minister King in a 200-word press statement

He had been approached, he said, by Liberals "from every province in Canada" to allow his name to go before the convention, which opens in Lansdowne Park here August 5 and concludes Saturday, August 7

His announcement placed him in the leadership race beside 66-year-old External Affairs Minister St Laurent.

The announcement also opened the way for other potential candidates in the Cabinet ranks and in the provincial field to declare their intentions

Possible starters include Transport Minister Chevrier, Finance Minister Abbott, Health Minister Martin, Trade Minister Howe, Premier Garson of Manitoba, and Premier Macdonald of Nova Scotia

WIDE EXPERIENCE

Mr Gardiner, short in stature, is long in political experience He stands 5 feet 4½ inches and has spent 34 years in the parliamentary arena. He entered the Federal Cabinet as agricultural minister in 1935 after resigning as Premier of Saskatchewan Many said that even then he had his eye on the Federal leadership.

A Westerner by adoption, he was born in Exeter, Ont He went West at 17 on a harvesters' excursion and spent the next three years working on prairie farms in the Summer and attending school in the winter

He taught school for a time and then went into politics, winning election to the Saskatchewan Legislature in 1914 He spent 21 years in that Assembly, serving progressively as minister of highways, premier, provincial treasurer, education minister, Opposition leader and premier again

... Oddities ...

TORONTO, July 7 (CP) — The Rainbow Girls' Society in convention at the Royal York Hotel here went on a mass crying "jag" this morning. A tear gas bomb mysteriously exploded in the cashier's cage and seeped into the hotel's air circulation system.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., July 7 (CP). —A report of a "hot" car with an "automatic pistol" lying in the back seat gave provincial and city police an exciting few minutes. While police stood watch over the car and others went in search of the owner, a sharp-eyed officer recognized the weapon for what it was—a water pistol.

MOUNT WASHINGTON N.H., July 7 (AP).—Next Winter's weather will be average—if you are inclined to take the word of amateur forecasters.

That was the encouraging report of several "hams" attending the annual meeting of the Amateur Weathermen of America atop this lofty peak yesterday.

The forecasters were driven to cover in the afternoon by a driving rain.

WASHINGTON, July 7 (AP).— The Japanese are getting ready to harvest a ten-pound crop— worth in prewar prices about $48,000.

It is double petunia seed—to be imported here for the first time since before the war, the Agriculture Department said today.

A department spokesman said the seeds used to bring up to $300 an ounce, "but there is no way to tell just what they will bring in today's inflated market."

READING, England, July 7 (AP). —Mrs. Florence Hayes admitted in court today she threw a bucket of cold water on two lovers who occupied her front doorstep. She explained.

"She keeps on giggling It's giggle, giggle, giggle, all the time My nerves won't take it."

The court didn't fine her Just costs of court.

Kootenay I.W.A. Voting on Offer

NELSON, B.C., July 7 (CP).—Members of the International Woodworkers' Association (C.I.O.) of the Kootenay and Okanagan are voting on an offer of the Southern Interior Lumber Operators' Association of 8½ cents per hour wage increase across the board Voting deadline is July 12 when the current contract expires, but it is expected the vote will not be completed by then.

The employees had asked 35 cents an hour but reduced this to 27½ cents and also sought a union shop and a welfare plan.

Tax Objector May Repeat 1947 Action

VANCOUVER, July 7 (CP). — Everett Crowley who served three days in jail last year rather than pay city poll tax, may stage a "repeat performance" this year.

He has been summoned to appear in police court July 13 for failing to pay his 1948 tax

Crowley has not revealed whether he will serve a jail sentence again in lieu of a fine. But he says he definitely will not pay the $5 tax which, he charges, "is an illegal levy denied since the time of Magna Carta"

Alberni Legion Alleges Patronage Still in Use

ALBERNI, July 7.—Political patronage is involved in appointment of veterans for civil service jobs according to a resolution passed at the monthly meeting of Somass Branch, Canadian Legion, Alberni, which will be forwarded to the Provincial and Dominion Commands of the Legion.

Rev. Glen Stevenson presented the resolution which alleged that "although veterans got first chance at civil service positions, in some cases, after they had passed examinations, they were still subject to approval by local political patronage groups"

The resolution declared that the Legion Branch protested against the method of appointment as unfair and inconsistent with the principle of true democratic freedom, and insisted that loyal and honorable war service, together with proven ability to fill any vacancy, be sufficient to satisfy those in authority.

Centre Has Lease On Big Port Hall

PORT ALBERNI, July 7. — The Memorial Centre Association has signed a lease on the R.C.E.M.E. Hall from the Port Alberni City Council. Brings Chinchillas Under By-Law

Saanich municipal council has asked the municipal clerk to draft an amendment bringing chinchillas and rabbits under provisions of the animals by-law.

The municipality at present has no power to control conditions under which chinchillas and rabbits may be kept.

The council gave S. B. Fraser and W. McNichol, Sidney, permission to operate a mink farm between Lochside Road and the old Veyaness subject to the approval of neighbors.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

THAT WORD "BACKBITE"

One of our readers requests the origin and meaning of the word "backbite" which he calls "metaphor for knifing in the back."

The reader's definition is a very apt one, for "backbite" in accordance with its origin, is in the nature of a metaphor, a verbal knifing—or hitting "in the back."

What is interesting is how long the term has been popular in English speech—from which one might draw the inference that such spiteful slander or clandestine detraction is a fairly ancient—if not honorable—pastime. The Elizabethans apparently knew it, for Edmund Spenser defined the verb "backbite" as "to speak evil of one absent," and Shakespeare used it thus.

"They are arrant knaves, and will backbite."

And then, in Herbert's collection of old proverbs published in 1640, one finds this saying:

"Were there no hearers, there would be no backbiters."

Hair Needs Lubricating During the Summer Months

By PATRICIA LINDSAY

Perhaps you have been going without a hat for weeks—playing in the sunshine, driving in open cars Your hair is looking none the better for this!

Take a good squint at your head in a candid light Is your hair dull and does it show sun streaks? Then it is time for you to give it a special treatment or to get a special treatment at your favorite salon.

Your hair, like your complexion, requires more local lubricating during the Summer than during the Winter. Give your hair a cream facial.

Special creams for hair come in tubes and bottles Your cosmetic counter can show you a choice. Usually the procedure is to shampoo your hair once with soap rinse (if your hair is very greasy or soiled) and then the entire contents of the tube is worked through the hair and massaged over it. Some creams require hot towel steamings, others do not. But simply follow the directions for the best results.

Then rinse off the product thoroughly and dry your hair by hand or brush it dry with a genuine bristled brush If you need a setting, set it only after it has been brushed and dried thoroughly.

If you cannot get a prepared cream, you may use a half and half mixture of odorless castor oil and pure olive oil—heated and applied to the scalp and hair with a bit of fresh cotton. This should be left on overnight with your head wrapped up for protection of the bed linen) or you should steam it for 10 minutes or so with hot towels before washing it out Do be careful not to put on too much for then it takes so many soapings to remove it that you strip your hair again.

Costly Wedding For Tacoma Couple

TACOMA, July 7 (AP)—Simple but costly arrangements are being made this week in preparation for the wedding here Saturday of Miss Virginia Lee (Wendy) Wagner and George Hunt Weyerhaeuser

The young couple, both members of wealthy lumber industry families will be married in the beautiful gardens of the Gravelly Lake home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Corydon Wagner

Weyerhaeuser, 23-year-old son of Mr and Mrs. J. P. Weyerhaeuser Jr., received national attention in May 1935, when he was kidnapped and ultimately ransomed for $200,000 Preparations for the wedding reflect much of the tension that has continued to surround the young Yale University student ever since

Every effort has been made to proceed quietly with the wedding plans and publicity has been discouraged Invitations have been extended to 1,500 persons however, and many guests are arriving daily from Eastern cities

Miss Wagner, 21, is a popular member of the Seattle-Tacoma younger set Her father heads the St Paul & Tacoma Lumber Company

Miss Virginia Bloedel of Vancouver will go to Tacoma to be bridesmaid at the wedding of her cousin, Miss Wagner

Little Stories for Bedtime

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

JIMMY SKUNK KEEPS HIS WORD

Keep your word whate'er you do,
And to your inmost self be true.

When Jimmy Skunk shouted down the hall of Johnny Chuck's old house to Peter Rabbit that he would come back at dark he was half joking. He did it to make Peter uneasy and to worry him. The truth is, Jimmy was no longer angry with Peter. He had quite recovered his good nature and was very much inclined to laugh himself over Peter's trick which had sent him rolling downhill in a barrel and had given him the greatest shaking-up he ever had had in his whole life. But he felt that it wouldn't do to let Peter off without some kind of punishment, so he decided to frighten Peter a little. He knew that Peter wouldn't dare come out during the daytime because of the yellow jackets, whose home was just inside the doorway of that old house, and he knew that Peter wouldn't dare to face him for he would be afraid of being treated as Reddy Fox had been. So that is why he told Peter that he was coming back at dark. He felt that if Peter was kept a prisoner in there for a while, all the time worrying about how he was to get out, he would be very slow to try such a trick again.

As Jimmy ambled away to look for some beetles he chuckled and chuckled and chuckled. "I guess that by this time Peter wishes he hadn't thought of that joke on Reddy Fox and myself," said he. "Perhaps I'll go back there tonight and perhaps I won't. He won't know whether I do or not and he won't dare come out."

Then he stopped and scratched his head thoughtfully. Then he sighed. Then he scratched his head again and once more sighed. "I really don't want to go back there tonight," he muttered, "but I guess I'll have to. I said I would, so I'll have to do it. I believe in keeping my word. If I shouldn't and some day he should find it out, he wouldn't believe me the next time I happened to say I would do a thing. Yes, sir, I'll have to go back. There is nothing like making people believe that when you say a thing you mean it. There is nothing like keeping your word to make people respect you."

"Come out, Peter, I'm waiting for you!" he called down the hall

Being naturally rather lazy, Jimmy decided not to go any further than the edge of the Old Orchard, which was only a little way above Johnny Chuck's old house where Peter was a prisoner. There Jimmy found a warm, sunny spot and curled up for a nap. In fact, he spent all the day there. When jolly, round, red Mr. Sun went to bed behind the Purple Tills and the Black Shadows came trooping across the Green Meadows, Jimmy got up, yawned, chuckled and then slowly ambled down to Johnny Chuck's old house. A look at the footprints in the sand on the doorstep told him that Peter had not come out. Jimmy sat down and waited until it was quite dark. Then he poked his head in at the doorway. The yellow jackets had gone to bed for the night.

"Come out, Peter, I'm waiting for you!" He called down the hall, and made his voice sound as angry as he could. But inside he was chuckling. Then Jimmy Skunk calmly turned and went about his business. He had kept his word.

As for Peter Rabbit, that had been one of the very worst days he could recall. He had ached and smarted from the stings of the yellow jackets, he had worried all day about what would happen to him if he did meet Jimmy Skunk, and he was hungry. He had had just a little bit of hope and this was that Jimmy Skunk wouldn't come back when it grew dark. He had crept part way up the hall at the first hint of night, and stretched himself out to wait until he could be sure that those dreadful yellow jackets had gone to sleep. He had just about made up his mind that it was safe for him to scamper out when Jimmy Skunk's voice came down the hall to him. Poor Peter! The sound of the voice almost broke his heart.

"He has come back. He's kept his word," he half sobbed as he once more went back to Johnny Chuck's old bedroom.

There he stayed nearly all the rest of the night, though his stomach was so empty it ached. You know Peter is a great eater. Just before it was time for Mr. Sun to rise Peter ventured to dash out of Johnny Chuck's old house. He got past the home of the yellow jackets safely, for they were not yet awake. With his heart in his mouth he sprang out of the doorway. Jimmy Skunk wasn't there. If Peter only had known it, he hadn't been there since he called to him the last time. With a sigh of relief Peter started for the dear, safe old Brier Patch, lipperty-lip, as fast as he could go.

"I'll never, never play another joke," he said over and over again as he ran.

Cost of Floods To Red Cross Now $100,000

The Red Cross is spending $20 000 of its own funds weekly to feed flood victims, Mrs. R. W. Myars, Red Cross publicity director, stated in Vancouver yesterday.

Red Cross flood bill until the end of June totaled $100 000

British Columbia Division of the Red Cross is beginning its second phase of assistance to flood victims. With scores of families returning to their homes in districts where flood waters have ebbed, the Red Cross is making a survey of their emergency needs before governments undertake permanent rehabilitation.

Since May 25 Red Cross has fed, clothed and cared for thousands of people. Hundreds must be looked after for weeks to come as waters in the Hatzic and Matsqui areas slowly recede.

Red Cross disaster aid committees have been set up in each locality. Victims are assured food, clothing and basic furnishings until Government rehabilitation schemes take over.

Entry Forms For Squadron Being Sought

Prospective members of Victoria's proposed auxiliary air force squadron should forward tentative entry forms before Saturday, G. T. Storey, member of the organizing committee, said yesterday.

Forms may be sent to Ad Astra Branch, Canadian Legion, P.O. Box 505; Air Force Officers' Association, P.O. Box 204, or the R.C.A.F. recruiting centre, Belmont Building.

Men seeking to join the proposed squadron may obtain information from the R.C.A.F. recruiting office. Ground tradesmen are especially sought, and some ex-aircrew are signing up for ground duties.

A resolution passed at a recent squadron organizational meeting, urging immediate official approval for formation of the squadron, has been forwarded to Defence Minister Brooke Claxton, Fisheries Minister R. W. Mayhew, M.P. for Victoria, and Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P. for Nanaimo.

Once Winner Tries Again

First man to tee off in the Gyro Club's "Hole-in-One" contest was last year's winner, Herbert Cook of 1023 Pandora Avenue. The contest opened last night at Central Junior High School.

His first ball stopped a good 30 feet from the pin. The next was a little closer, and within a few minutes Mr. Cook had three balls within a foot of the target. He won third prize of $5.

Seventy-five young people attended a beach party at Island View on Tuesday evening the second in the Summer series of the Vancouver Island Presbytery Young People's Union. Miss June-Anne Bailey and Douglas Robinson directed a program of novelty sports and refreshments were served around the campfire, under the convenership of Miss Pat Fawcett. The singing was led by Miss Barbara Howard, Christian Culture convener for the B.C. Conference Y.P.U. The next Summer activity will be held on Tuesday July 20, in charge of the Chinese United Y.P.U.

13 Entered In Contest

Thirteen entries have been submitted for judging on Monday, July 12, in the Greater Victoria home playground contest, officials announced yesterday.

Sponsors, the Recreational Council of Greater Victoria and the district P.-T.A. are offering a $10 prize for the best entry from the city. Additional municipality awards of $5 each are also at stake.

Judges are looking for entries which are safe, durable, useful and economical. Equipment should appeal to children under 12 years.

Objective of the contest is the encouragement of home amusement with the view of keeping children off dangerous city streets, officials said.

Those judging the contest include John Halstead, W. H. Warren, city parks administrator, Miss V. Ashdown, Mrs M. Simpson and Mrs J. Davis.

Complete Flood Review Outlined to Legislature

Complete review of the situation created by floods in British Columbia and the action taken by the Provincial Government to provide relief and rehabilitation was given by Premier Byron I. Johnson at the opening of the special flood session of the Legislature yesterday.

The flood this year, Premier Johnson said, was the worst in the known history of the Province and [illegible] ever recorded in Canada.

Peak of water in the great flood of 1894 was slightly higher, but it was of only ten days' duration, as compared with more than a month of high water in this year's disaster, the Premier said.

Due to the great skill and untiring efforts of all those who worked on the dikes, Mr. Johnson said, the water was confined to 51,000 acres.

HIGH PRAISE

He had high praise for the work of numerous individuals who directed the flood battle to the early stages, for the hundreds of citizens who worked voluntarily on the dikes and for the work of the army, navy and air force.

The Premier then reviewed his conference with members of the Federal Government and the agreements which were reached for sharing relief and rehabilitation costs in the Fraser Valley. He stressed that food costs outside the Fraser Valley would be entirely a Provincial responsibility.

The Dominion Government, he recalled, would make an outright grant of $5,000,000 toward emergency relief costs and rehabilitation. The Province would assume full responsibility for immediate relief and assisting in the general rehabilitation of homes, farm buildings and provincial and municipal property. Cost of reconstructing dikes, removing water and debris would be shared 75 per cent by the Dominion and 25 per cent by the Province. Cost of protecting the dikes during the flood and combating the flood [illegible] same basis.

FIRST TIME

For the first time the Premier disclosed terms of reference given to the Fraser Valley Rehabilitation Commission.

Making the first definite statement on crop losses, Premier Johnson said: "The provision of livestock feed, seeds, stock plants and the restoring of farms to their former usefulness shall not include any claims for compensation of lost crops, lost cattle or any other similar losses that may have been incurred.

Otherwise, the commission, composed of W. L. Macken and Col. D'Arcy Baldwin, was instructed to get people back to their homes as soon as possible, to render assistance to farmers and others in restoring their homes and farm buildings, to make available feed for livestock, both for immediate use and for next Winter's supply, to make sufficient seeds and plants available to allow farmers to restart their crops and to consider ways and means of restoring lands to their former usefulness.

Minister Recommends $1,500,000 For Relief Outside Fraser Valley

At least $1,500,000 should be provided for relief from the ravages of flood waters in British Columbia outside the Fraser Valley. A further $1,500,000 should be provided for repairing British Columbia roads and bridges.

These were the major recommendations yesterday of Lands and Forests Minister E. T. Kenney, who was appointed by the Cabinet three weeks ago to survey flood damage outside the Fraser Valley. His find[illegible] port released yesterday.

SAME BASIS

Despite the fact that the Dominion Government is sharing in rehabilitation costs for the Fraser Delta while the Province must bear the entire costs outside this area, Mr. Kenney recommended that all persons suffering flood damage anywhere in the Province be treated on exactly the same basis.

He gave the following tentative analysis of flood costs outside the Fraser Valley: combatting flood and protecting dikes, $231,536; estimated cost of restoring dikes, $162,000; immediate relief and restoration of municipal and private property, $467,066, and replanting crops and seed, $152,606.

Totals for each district included: Skeena River Valley, $6,525; Kimberley, $164,960; Trail, $362,890; North Kamloops, $6,355; North Thompson River, $42,200; Creston area, $185,000; Kelowna (outside city), $7,800; Merritt and Ashcroft, $33,952; Cawston, Christian Valley, Grand Forks, Hedley, Keremeos, Oliver, Osoyoos, Princeton and Westbridge, $177,200; South Okanagan Land Project, $6,817; Arrow Lake, $2,500.

In addition, Mr. Kenney reported that Hedley required $32,000 for river protection and that river bank work is necessary at Natal.

NOT COVERED

[illegible] able to cover personally, [illegible] reports, bring his total recommended relief expenditure to $1,500,000.

In the reconstruction of dikes outside the Fraser Valley, Mr. Kenney recommended the work should be under the strict supervision of an engineer, and said there were a number of places in which dikes would have to be completely rebuilt.

"In the restoration of private homes," he continued, "I would suggest that an agreed upon credit should be set up from which the home owner could draw his wages and materials, so that he may be usefully employed during the time his property, such as farm lands, is being relieved of excess water and becomes in a fit state for cultivation."

Seeds and nursery stock, Mr. Kenney said, should be supplied free so that farms rehabilitation could be carried out as soon as possible.

"My attention was repeatedly called to the desirability of bank protection and the dredging of channels of streams," he reported.

This would necessitate an enormous expense as in such mountainous country as British Columbia. Where the river gradients are great, the damage to properties adjacent to streams will continue for all time, he said.

Mr. Kenney recommended that all plans for subdivision of land in unorganized territory [illegible] to the [illegible] Department and the Health Department for approval.

Dog Pound Not Suitable S.P.C.A. Informs City

Victoria's city dog pound on Swift Street was criticized as unsuitable and the city requested to consider building a new one in a more satisfactory location by the Victoria S.P.C.A. in a letter to City Council yesterday.

The S.P.C.A. said the pound is unsuitable because of lack of heat in Winter, stench from nearby garbage scows and heat in Summer.

Provisions of section 16 of the pound by-law are not being carried out the organization claimed. The section provides the pound keeper must notify owner of the impounded dog within 24 hours, if the owner's address is available.

The letter, signed by President James Barr, said that provincial regulations will not allow an oil heater to be used in the pound because no oil burners are permitted in buildings built over tidal water, as the pound is.

"Previous investigations show that no other type of heating is satisfactory," the S.P.C.A. claimed, pointing out it had offered to buy an oil heater on agreement that the city install it.

Boost Rates Saanich Told By Doctors

Saanich Municipal Council has yielded to an ultimatum from the Victoria Medical Society.

Dr. R. C. Newby, honorary secretary of Victoria Medical Association, demanded on the association's behalf that Saanich raise its contributions for indigent patients by five cents, to 75 cents per patient per month, retroactive to January 1.

Unless the council complied, his letter said, the association would consider its contract null and void after July 15, and would attend only emergency cases on the basis of minimum fees.

The council followed the city, Oak Bay and Esquimalt in agreeing to the demand.

Union Board of Health sent the council a copy of a letter to Acting-Mayor Dr. J. D. Hunter of Victoria, backing a Saanich request that Dupplin Road be linked with the city's northwest sewer.

Another Saanich area has already been linked in similar fashion to the city's northeast sewer.

Pin-Ball Fate In Saanich Decided Soon

The fate of pin-ball machines in Saanich hangs in the balance.

The municipal council, due to revise its licensing by-law soon, will decide whether or not pin-ball machines will be licensed, Reeve E. C. Warren said recently.

He promised the council to table a report on pin-ball machines from Police Chief Josiah Bull when licensing revisions are discussed.

The report, which lists the number of machines in the municipality and the names of those who own and operate them, has already been placed in the reeve's hands.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP).—A timid rally faded away in the stock market, and most prices coasted downhill. Price changes were mainly fractional either way. A good handful of issues managed to hang on and end in the plus column. Selling pressure became a little more insistent toward the close. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .2 of one point to 71.7. Of the 1,006 issues which appeared on the tape 439 declined and 317 advanced.

Boyhood Friends of Thomas E. Dewey Recall G.O.P. Nominee's Ability to Work, Organize

The following is the first installment in a biography of the Republican nominee for President of the United States, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. The important stages of the candidate's life are covered by three different writers. Francis Burns (of The Boston Globe) reports on Tom Dewey's boyhood days through to his entering the University of Michigan. Louis M. Lyons (also of The Boston Globe) picks Dewey up on his entering Columbia Law School in New York City and carries the biography through to the Republican nominee's meteoric rise to political prominence. The concluding installments by Jay G. Hayden (of The Detroit News) detail Dewey's life as Governor of New York and other notable aspects of his political career.

By FRANCIS BURNS

OWOSSO, Mich., July 7 (NANA).—Thomas Edmund Dewey, nominated at Philadelphia as the Republican candidate for President of the United States, was born in this Michigan town on a raw March evening 46 years ago, the only child of George Martin Dewey, Jr., and Anne Thomas Dewey.

The son was christened Thomas, his mother's maiden name, and Edmund for his father's brother, Edmund Otis Dewey, in Christ Episcopal Church here, where his mother had been baptized.

His mother isn't the only person who remembers that March 11, 1902. "When I held the youngster up for the first time," Dr. A. L. Arnold recalls, "I said, 'Who knows, this seven-pound boy may be President of the United States some day.' No, I didn't say that for every baby boy," he denied, twinkling.

The elderly physician thinks "young Thomas," who later started the climb to political fame by breaking up New York gangs, was not more than three or four years old when he busted his first racket.

"A gang of little toughies was snatching away the marbles of the younger boys and bullying them in general," Dr. Arnold told me. "Well, Tom just organized a gang of his own and took matters into his own hand. He ended that racket."

People's recollections have been sharpened by Dewey's meteoric rise to political fame. Some of those who today count themselves childhood friends of one who has taken the road that leads to the White House avoided him as an unnatural prissy who was more interested in work than play when young and even was suspected of doing his daily two hours of piano practice willingly.

"Tom was the only one among us who ever owned anything," chuckled Don Mitchell, president today of a large manufacturing corporation. "An allowence of 25 cents a week was big for eny of us, but Tom earned his own money."

Mitchell was one of the boys who worked for the 13-year-old Dewey when he had 10 or so youngsters getting magazine and newspaper subscriptions and delivering the periodicals for him. The two boys grew up a few doors apart and had plenty of squabbles when the less ambitious Don wanted to take time out for play and was told that he had to meet the goal which Dewey had set for him or else.

YOUNG ORGANIZER

"Tom was an organizer from the beginning," Mitchell exclaimed. "I learned a lot from him that I have found useful in later business life—not to do all the legwork yourself. You think and let someone else do the running. Now, take this president's job. No one man can do it. It takes organization, and Tom has that ability."

Tom Dewey was eight or ten years old when he spent 15 minutes arguing with Mrs. Pearl Pulver into spending five cents a week for a magazine. She was bookkeeper then for S. E. Emery who used to come here to buy poultry and eggs for his stall in Faneuil Hall. The Bostonian was so impressed by Dewey's enterprise that he said, "Pearl, you want to watch that boy. He's going to go places!"

According to his mother, young Tom did household chores because he believed it was his duty to do them. Although they always approved of his saving money, his parents demurred when he first wanted to be a newsboy. While in high school, with other boys working for him, he did have the agency for the Detroit News, meeting the 4.15 every afternoon, collecting the papers from it and distributing them among his fellows for delivery. One year, toward the end of his high school career, he worked for a drugstore after school and on Saturdays.

Tom Dewey had saved $800 before he went to college. Most of the other boys picked up odd jobs around town for a little pocket money, mowed lawns, swept out the local stores. But among those of his fellows who earned change enough for sodas and movies, and an occasional dance, young Tom's enterprises seem to have assumed almost the proportions of big business.

French Ratify Aid Plan Pact

PARIS, July 7 (AP).—The National Assembly ratified today an agreement with the United States calling for France's participation in the Marshall Plan for European recovery. The vote was 336 to 183, with the Communists opposing the measure.

Under the agreement France will receive $378,000,000 in aid from the United States during the first three months of the program's operation. Of this amount $78,000,000 is tabbed as a loan and the remainder as a direct grant.

There were 78 abstentions in the voting, nearly all of them followers of Gen. De Gaulle. He has said that if he were in power he would have obtained much more from the United States.

FLYING SALESMAN

EDMONTON (CP).—Selling insurance in all parts of Alberta from one office usually is a difficult job, but Gordon E. Smaller has simplified the problem. He bought his own airplane to visit clients throughout the province.

POOR LUCK

VANCOUVER, July 7 (CP).—Vancouver's "fishpole burglar" had poor luck last night. Four attempted burglaries netted him only a pair of trousers and an empty wallet.

Paper Accuses Western Bloc

MOSCOW, July 7 (AP).—Pravda today accused the six powers which took part in the London Conference on Germany of making secret deals to grab land in Western Germany.

(The Western Powers decided at a conference last Spring to place control of the Ruhr coal, coke and steel under an international authority representing the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and Germany and to establish a Federal Government for Western Germany).

Pravda's Berlin correspondent said it has become known in Berlin that the Benelux countries had, as a result of the "obedience of their Governments to American dictation," been assigned the following:

The Netherlands. To receive the area embodying the cities of Bentheim, Venlo and the Island of Borkum in the Darlart Gulf. Pravda declared that these areas include about three-quarters of all German petroleum, natural gas resources and up to 80 per cent of coal and natural gas.

Belgium. To receive the city of Moshau and part of the district of Schleiden, where the largest German hydro-electric stations are located.

Luxembourg. To be granted a strip of land along the Moselle River.

West Rated Highly In Olympic Trials

Track and Field Entrants Expected to Make Excellent Showing in Bid for Trip to London

MONTREAL, July 7 (CP). — It begins to look as if the boys from the West are going to do pretty well by themselves to grabbing off berths on Canada's Olympic track and field squad

But there will be no runaway and, based on past performances, the toughest opposition to the men's division will come largely from Ontario.

The two-day affair will find more than 130 athletes competing in Molson Stadium at McGill University.

Don Pettie, the Calgary flash who runs for Drake University of Des Moines, Iowa, appears to hold the key to the 100-metre dash. Pettie did not compete in the Zone 3 trials at Winnipeg but was recommended on his record.

Pettie is also entered in the 200 metres against such opposition as Jack Parry, of London, Ont., with a 21.8 zone mark.

Bob McFarlane, Parry's teammate, should have things all his own way in the 400 metres. At the zone trial he broke his own Canadian record with 47.3. The West's best bet appears to be Ernie McCullough, of Calgary, with 48.4 for his zone performance.

On the record, Jack Hutchins, of Vancouver, holds the edge in the 800 metres with 1.53.9, but Bill Parnell, of Vancouver, who was second in the trial is said to have bettered this earlier. Ernie McCullough and Jim Daly of Winnipeg are in there also.

Cliff Salmond, of Victoria, has the best zone mark for the 1,500 metres, 4:07, but Don Scott McEwen, of Ottawa Glebe Collegiate, will give him a battle. Salmond also holds the time edge in the 5,000 metres, followed closely by Bob Piercy of the University of British Columbia.

It's another close vall in the 10,000 metres. Take your choice among Don James, of Winnipeg, R. C. Martin, of Toronto; Lloyd Evans and Les Brooks, of Montreal.

For the broad jump in the field events the zone marks show Bob Pierce, of London, in front. John Gough, of Carstairs, Alta., follows.

Art Jackes, of Toronto, is No. 1 choice for the high jump, followed by Dave Blair of U.B.C.

The pole vault figures give the nod to Doug Robinson, of Vancouver, but three Easterners will provide strong contention.

In the shotput, Eric Coy, the Winnipeg veteran of 20 years' competition, is out in front on performance. Coy, former British Empire discus champion, holds the native Canadian discus and shotput marks. His closest rivals include John Pavelich of U.B.C.

Svein Sigfusson, fellow-townsman of Coy, will argue the discus event with him and looks good enough to win. Sigfusson is the only entrant to the hammer throw.

The decathlon is a wide open affair among Lionel Fournier of McGill, Doug Robinson of Vancouver and Fred Rowell of U.B.C.

Swimmers Set for Test

MONTREAL, July 7 (CP).—Allan Marshall, Toronto's breast-stroke ace, and Victoria's Peter Salmon kept a critical eye on each other's styles today as they practised to pare vital seconds off their racing times for Friday's first Olympic swimming trials.

Both concentrated efforts on starting technique, one of the most important points in aquatic racing and one which might decide the winner.

Also on the scene at suburban Verdun's Natatorium was Irene Strong, Victoria Y.M.C.A. women's breast-stroke hope.

Irene said she was confident—and excited—about the trials Friday and Saturday. She said she hoped to land an Olympic berth and maybe even clip a few seconds off the Canadian breast-stroke record.

Coach Archie Mackinnon, who also will act as the Canadian Olympic squad mentor, said Irene was in top form after a brief two-day illness. He thought it was the change of food and water on the long trip from the Coast that upset her.

Young Jim Portelance from Ocean Falls, B.C., was taking it easy after hard practising this morning and yesterday. Looking at his 200, 400, 800, one mile and 1,500-metre records, many coaches have spent time keeping a close eye on his style, developed by Coach Tom Jones.

The last of the Olympic trial teams from the West arrived here today after a long pull from Winnipeg. Headed by Captain Coy Kerr, they include such stars as Kel Buckboro, Vivian King, John Bell, Dean Hillsman and George Bevins.

Leonard Cops Peace Portals Open Tourney

PEACE PORTAL, B.C., July 7 (CP). —Stan Leonard, Vancouver professional, topped a field of 76 amateurs and professional golfers here today to take the Peace Portal open tournament with a 138.

Leonard shot a two-under-par 138 in the 36-hole tourney to take the honors for the second year running.

Vancouver's Bill Mawhinney, the British Columbia junior champion and a member of the British Columbia Willingdon Cup team, was second, topping many contending professionals with a 136.

Five Vancouver professionals scored 146's to share honors for third spot in the tourney. They were Fred Wood, Don Sullivan, Benny Colk, Ernie Brown and Jock McKinnon.

Second-placing amateur in the field, and a former British Columbia amateur champion, Lyle Hurschman, ranked fourth in the play with 144.

Jim Robertson, another Willingdon cupper, tallied a 147 to mark his name fifth in the crowded field.

Six Cricket XI's To Play Saturday

Three cricket matches have been scheduled for Saturday. Five C's, defending champions, will endeavour to get back into contention when they meet the undefeated Oak Bay XI in the feature match at Macdonald Park. Incogs will tangle with Navy at the University School and Albions will play Ex-R.A.P. at Naden.

Line-up of the Oak Bay team follows: Dobbie, Parkins, Harrison, Bands, Gauvreau, Higgs, Thornton, Deane, J. Wright, Hicks, Ridge and K. Wright, reserve.

Five C's will hold a practice at Macdonald Park tonight at 7 o'clock. All players are requested to attend.

Spencers Square Cricket Series

Spencers evened their cricket series with the Oak Bay Colts by scoring a 70-50 triumph at Windsor Park yesterday.

Veteran Jimmy Oakman, opening batsman, sparked the Storemen with a brilliant innings of 46. Bowling was equally divided with McIlvenny taking three wickets for 10 runs, Sherratt taking three for 17, and Bowkett taking three for 13.

Paterson was the only Colt to reach double figures, scoring 16 runs. R. Rowe took five Spencer wickets for 27 runs.

Next game, tomorrow: Bluebird Cabs vs. Douglas Tire, Upper Central, 6:45 p.m.

Bluebird Cabs made their bid for the last play-off spot in the Senior "A" softball pennant race by defeating Navy, 5-2, last night. Victory moved the Cabbies into fourth place, 36 percentage points ahead of the Sailors. Bluebirds have one game against Douglas Tire remaining on their schedule. Bluejackets must meet each of the top three teams.

Winners reached George Kinch for four runs in the third inning. Singles by Bob Embleton and Tommy Johnston, a base on balls and Bob Prior's line drive double that right fielder Joe Connor let roll between his legs, did the damage. They added single tallies in the fifth and seventh to complete their scoring.

Navy's two runs came to the bottom of the seventh on a pair of singles, two errors, a stolen base and fielder's choice.

Langford defeated Selkirk Lumber, 13-5, in a senior "B" men's fixture.

New Method marked up its third straight triumph in the women's senior "B" section, coming from behind with a six-run sixth frame to trim Langford, 13-7.

Goblin Cafs and Hotshots exchanged 11-run innings as the former gained a 21-15 decision in a junior girls' game.

Walsh Outshines U.S. Track Stars; Talks Retirement

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 7 (AP).—Stella Walsh, Cleveland track veteran of more than a score of years, talked retirement today after outshining the cream of United States women's athletes in yesterday's National Women's Amateur Athletic Union Track meet.

"I'll probably retire from track this Summer or Fall," said the lean and lanky star after a rousing triple-victory performance that was good for firsts in the broad jump, the 100-metre and the 200-metre runs.

Miss Walsh is ineligible for Olympic competition because she competed for her native Poland in the 1936 Games.

Ontario Selects Cricket XI For Title Series

TORONTO, July 7 (CP).—A team of 14 cricketers to represent Ontario against the west for the Canadian interprovincial cricket championship was named tonight.

Craufurd Martin, president of the Ontario Association, said the invitations will be sent out tomorrow, all but one going to Toronto players. The exception is B. E. Lawrence of Ottawa.

The Ontario eleven will play in Vancouver August 2-7 for the Seagram Trophy.

The players are:

R. G. McLean, captain; R. C. Dobson, vice-captain; V. Barber, B. Boyden, F. J. Cameron, J. Chipman, A. Forbes, D. Gallagher, A. Gerrard, L. Gunn, S. E. Lawrence, A. Percival, H. Smith and L. Stroud.

Montreal Fighter New Champion

MONTREAL, July 7 (CP) — Jean Richard of Montreal pounded his way to the Canadian featherweight boxing crown last night, outpointing Champion Fernando Gagnon of Quebec in a title bout at the Forum. Richard tipped the scales at 124¼ while Gagnon weighed 118¼.

Richard earned a shot at the crown a month ago when he won an unanimous decision over Gagnon in a non-title bout.

Release Draw In Davis Cup Singles' Play

MONTREAL, July 7 (CP) — Nominations for the opening singles matches in the North American zone Davis Cup tie turned out today as expected and the draw for tomorrow's opener sends Canada's Henri Rochon against Francisco Guerrero of Mexico.

In the second singles, Brendan Macken of Canada will meet the formidable Armando Vega, Mexico's No. 1 tennis star.

Saturday the singles nominees will change opponents, Rochon meeting Vega and Brendan Macken meeting Guerrero.

Value of experience gained by Canada's netmen in Winter tournaments in the United States and a more recent training period at Baltimore, will be put to the test in the three-day tie.

Victoria's fighting Athletics, the scrappiest baseball club this city has seen, pulled another one out of the fire last night as Babe Jensen and Frank Logue shared the hero's mantle. Trailing Bremerton's second-place Bluejackets, 7-0, in the third inning and batting against John Marshall, the A's came roaring from behind to score a 10-7 victory in the series opener at Royal Athletic Park.

Logue came in after the Tars had greeted Bill Harmsen rather rudely, gave up a run in the third when his defence was largely responsible, and then shut the door the rest of the way with a beautiful exhibition of pitching. His teammates pecked away at Marshall to make the count 7-4 going into the seventh. With one run in, nobody out and two men on, John Conant was called in to relieve the faltering Marshall, an old nemesis.

Conant pitched carefully to Archie Wilson, loading the bags with a more or less intentional base on balls. Jenson, who has been pounding the ball hard most of the season, picked this occasion for his third home run, lofting the ball over the wall to give his team a 8-7 lead as the crowd went wild. It was the second bases-loaded circuit smash of the night. Bremerton Catcher Al Ronning put the Tars far ahead with a four-run wallop in the first.

The tenth Victoria run in the eighth was hardly noticed in the bedlam. The triumph moved the A's within four games of the Jackets and five lengths behind the leading Tacoma Tigers.

Harmsen, who has had nothing but tough luck, was reached for five runs in the first after the A's missed on two double plays. Ronning's grand-slammer, coming after an intentional pass to Bill Barisoff, was the blow that hurt. The tall righthander was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the second, when the A's failed to score after loading the bases with one out.

Marshall's downfall started in the fourth, when three solid hits produced two runs. He got a break in the fifth when he knocked down Kubiak's terrific liner and converted it into a double play just before Palmer unloaded his 12th circuit smash.

Barisoff's error on Balassi's easy roller started the winning rally after the A's scored their fourth run in the sixth on Walseth's fly to right field. Kubiak and Palmer singled for one run, Wilson then got his pass and Jensen followed up with his game-winning clout.

OUTFIELDERS COLLIDE

The game was marred by a bad collision between Lyle Palmer and Eddie Murphy, Bremerton outfielders, in the eighth. They took off after Jensen's high fly to left centre and smashed into each other at full speed. Both were knocked cold, with Palmer getting the worst of it. The former University of California star was taken to hospital for observation, complaining of a sore neck. X-rays will be taken today to determine the extent of his injuries. At the best, he will miss the balance of the series.

Second game is set for tonight and will be preceded by drawing for a long list of prizes and entertainment by musically - inclined members of the A's in a special "Fan Appreciation Night." One of the season's largest crowds is expected. Jim Propst has been named to start for Victoria. He will be opposed by Nino Barnise, Lyle Palmer's collegiate teammate.

Morrison Bests McColl In Willingdon Cup Golf

Hughie Morrison, who plays out of Vancouver's Marine Drive Golf Club, yesterday earned the fifth berth on the British Columbia Willingdon Cup team. He played consistently good golf in 18-hole rounds at the Victoria and Uplands Golf Club to win the 72-hole play-off with Billy McColl of Victoria by 16 strokes, 292-308.

Four strokes up as a result of his 75-72, carded Tuesday, to 18-hole rounds at Shaughnessy and Point Grey layouts in Vancouver, Morrison recovered after a shaky start at the Oak Bay links and added steadily to his form after the fourth hole. He toured the tricky par 69 layout in 71, and added an identical score to the afternoon round at Uplands. McColl had 76 at the Victoria club and 78 at Uplands.

It was Morrison's superior consistency which counted. The Vancouver shotmaker had only five birdies but putted out in regulation figures 23 times. He bogied eight holes but was never more than one over. On the other hand, McColl had four double bogies and an eight on another hole in addition to 11 bogies. The Victoria city champion managed six birdies, not enough to overcome his erratic play on many holes. Morrison's iron play was the feature of his game, while McColl's second shots kept getting him into trouble.

McColl picked up the four strokes he was behind on the first three holes and it appeared as if he might go on to earn a trip to Hamilton. He birdied the first and third holes as his opponent went over each time. The tide turned on the par 4 fourth, when McColl needed five and Morrison came through with a birdie 3, to go two strokes up. McColl practically put himself out of it with double bogies on the short seventh and ninth holes. He made it certain on the long 12th when his second shot found the broom on the right and he soared to an eight to go nine strokes down.

Morrison joined Percy Clogg, Walt McElroy, Jimmy Robertson and Junior Champion Bill Mawhinney on the British Columbia team. They leave by air tomorrow for the cup matches at Hamilton, starting Monday.

Scores follow.

Dodgers Near First Division; Edge Leaders in Ninth Inning

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Those last-inning rallies that so often make a bum out of the best pitchers in the game figured in three major league baseball contests last night.

At Brooklyn, Roy Campanella's long fly with one out and the bases loaded in the 11th inning, enabled Carl Furillo to score from third after the catch with the run that gave Brooklyn Dodgers a 4-3 victory over Boston Braves.

Another National loop tilt at St. Louis saw Ralph Kiner and Wally Westlake team up with a double and a single, respectively, in the ninth inning to give Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-1 edge over the Cardinals.

In the American League, Washington Senators cut loose with a five-run rally in the ninth inning to overtake Boston Red Sox for a 7-6 triumph. Ted Williams of the Sox became the first American Leaguer to smash 100 hits, singling twice in five times at bat. Junior Stephens and Bobby Doerr homered for the Sox.

YANKS LOSE AGAIN

Hank Majeski knocked in three runs with a home run and triple to lead Philadelphia Athletics to a 4-3 victory over his former New York Yankee teammates.

Cleveland Indians exploded for six runs in the first inning and coasted to a 15-3 victory over the Chicago White Sox as Bob Feller notched his ninth triumph against nine losses. The victory enabled the Indians to retain their slim first-place American loop standing.

At Detroit Hal Newhouser made a bid for a pitcher's berth on the league all-star team by blanking St. Louis Browns 6-0. It was his 12th victory against six losses.

Jack Parker Scores Second Upset In City Net Meet; Ousts Williams

"How good is Jack Parker?" is the question being asked by tennis fans out at Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, where the city championships are currently being contested. Fresh from his defeat of Wilmot Brown Cave the previous night, the amazing Parker blazed through top-seeded Dave Williams in straight sets, 6-4, 9-7, during last night's quarter-final play.

Unheralded among contestants, the bespectacled pedagogue is now firmly entrenched in the semi-final round, where he will meet fourth-seeded Carl Brand on Friday evening. Brand advanced to the round of four by dumping fifth-seeded Rex Jackson in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3.

With Williams relegated to the sidelines, second-seeded Bernard Milledge now becomes the favorite. Milledge will make his bid for a semi-final slot tonight when he takes on Jim McArthur. Meanwhile, third-seeded Ron Mitchell and sixth-seeded Bill Dunbar will decide who is to occupy the remaining spot in the semis.

In the ladies' singles event, Bessie Wilson outlasted youthful Jocelyn Collinson, 6-4, 7-9, 7-5, to join Pat Cowan, Anna Peden and Jill Gore-Langton in the semi-final round.

All four seeded men's doubles teams advanced to the semi-final round during Wednesday's play. Top-seeded Milledge and Williams dropped a set to John McPherson and Geoff Robbins before triumphing. McArthur and Brand, Jackson and Gordon, and Sinclair and Mitchell all came through with straight set triumphs despite some close play and strong attempts by the opposition.

In the mixed play, unseeded Milledge and Pat Cowan upset favored Patience Birley and Bill Dunbar, 7-9, 6-4, 6-3. Other mixed matches will be run off tonight and in the women's doubles event semi-final rounds are scheduled. Matching strokes to decide the finalists will be Mrs. Birley and Mrs. Wilson, who will tackle the Misses Cowan and Peden, while Mrs Keyes and Miss Jackson oppose Mrs. Edwards and Miss Gore-Langton.

6:30 p.m.—B. Milledge vs. J. McArthur; R. Mitchell vs. W. Dunbar; Mrs. B. Keyes and Miss P. Jackson vs. Mrs. D. Edwards and Miss G. Gore-Langton; Mrs. P. Birley and Mrs. B. Wilson vs. Misses P. Cowan and A. Peden; Miss E. MacDonald vs. Miss C. Baillie.

6.36 p.m.—L. Lee vs. J. Kinsley; J. MacPherson vs. T. Woodruff.

Thompson Leads P.C.L. Moundsmen

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7 (AP). — Gene (Junior) Thompson, San Diego right hander, led regular Pacific Coast League pitchers through games of July 5, with 8 wins and 2 losses for a percentage of .800.

Former league pace-setters, Southpaw Norman Besse of Seattle and Righthander "Red" Lynn of Los Angeles, were tied with 11 wins and 4 defeats through Monday. Hollywood righthander George Woods held strikeout honors with 82 for his 7-16 record. Aldon (Lefty) Wilkie of Oakland had 8 wins and 4 losses for .682.

Nanaimo Players Draw Suspensions

Two Nanaimo lacrosse players drew suspensions at a meeting of the Island Box Lacrosse League executive on Tuesday.

Bill Seward drew a suspension for the remainder of the season for striking a referee during a contest at Stevenson Park two weeks ago. Buck Bennie was penalized for three games for rough play in the same game. He has already missed one fixture and will sit out two more.

The Sportlight

By GRANTLAND RICE

Missouri has become famous for two sets of families, both dealing with horses. But they are hardly to be compared.

The first were the James boys, meaning Frank and Jesse, who were the riding Arcaros and Longdens of their day and time. They carried [illegible] each wore.

The Jones boys come from Parnell, Missouri. They have never held up anybody, except rival horses. They are not brothers. They are father and son.

I was talking about Ben Jones with John Partridge, the veteran trainer "Ben and I worked together when we had to walk our horses 20 miles to a track, and then walk them 20 miles home In those early days, a purse of $50 was pretty big money.

INDIANS TOO SMART

"I think our toughest competitors in those days were the Indians. Sioux, Apaches, etc. They also had horses and they knew how to train them We never had much luck with an Indian They were too smart.

"Once Ben bet $200 on one of his best horses against an Indian horse in Oklahoma. The race was run just about daybreak. Ben's horse was leading by two lengths with half a furlong to go. Then he disappeared. The Indians had dug a pit and covered it with branches and dirt.

"I'll tell you about Ben," John continued "He was always one of the hardest workers I ever knew And he also knew horses. Both Ben and I have always worked along the lines that you can get better results by being kind and gentle with a horse than by punishing him.

"Even thirty or forty years ago Ben could tell pretty well what a horse would amount to. He told me about Whirlaway long before anyone else knew how good he was. 'A crazy horse, John,' he would say, 'but how he can run and keep on running'

FOUR DERBY WINNERS

"Ben popped up with Lawrin, a Derby winner Then he came up with Whirlaway. Then Pensive. Then Citation. Four Derby winners Two Triple Crown winners"

"What would you call the secret or mystery or answer, to Ben Jones' success," I asked John.

"He knew and knows horses," J Partridge replied. "Hard work Endless patience I never knew a fellow with more patience Ben would give certain horses two years of his time."

BEN AND JIMMY

"Then along came Jimmy," John Partridge continued. "Jimmy knew and loved horses when he was a little fellow Years ago, Jimmy had various offers to become head trainer at certain big stables. Ben would have a fit. He knew how much help Jimmy could give him. He knew that he couldn't last forever. And he knew Jimmy could take his place.

"Jimmy has been like Ben when it comes to patience.

"They had Armed. Armed was too small and not much good as a two-year-old. They let him grow They waited until late in his career as a three-year-old to run him Sensing he was quite a horse, they wanted to give him every chance When they finally turned him loose, he was ready. Armed has been one of the great handicap horses of all time, one of racing's greatest money winners."

GETS THE BEST

When Ben Jones came to Warren Wright's Calumet Stable, he insisted on only one thing. Better breeding Better sires and better dams

Warren Wright was agreeable. They called on the Blenheim and the Bull Lea breed. They called on some of the Widener mares. They got the tops. So Armed, Citation, Bewitch, Fervent, Faultless, Coaltown arrived—not a bad crop. There will be others this late Summer and Fall. You'll hear from them around Futurity time.

Can the Jones boys turn out a two-year-old that can run with Mrs. Elizabeth Graham's Mr. Busher?

I happened to run across Mrs. Graham some time back. "I told you Jet Pilot would win the Kentucky Derby a year in advance," she said "Mr. Busher is a better horse than Jet Pilot ever was. He will win the Kentucky Derby of 1948."

After this observation, Mr. Busher proceeded to win his next two starts in a romp. If there is a better two-year-old than Mr. Busher, I haven't seen him around. But the season is still new and young for the two-year-olds—and the Jones boys haven't filled their full report yet for the racing season of 1948.

Last year the Jones boys and Calumet piled up over $1,400,000 in purses. Ben claims that he and Jimmy can't equal that mark this season. I think they'll break it and that Calumet will wind up well above the $1,500,000 mark.

Winners of a mixed two-ball foursome for Shipley Cup, played by members at the Salt Spring Island Golf Club recently, were Mrs. Lois Hayes and Joe Baker. Runners-up were Mrs. Fred Morris and W. E. Bradley.

Younger Tracksters May Shine In Highland Games Competition

With the possibility that leading provincial track and field stars will be away to the Olympic Games, keen competition is expected from younger athletes at the annual Victoria Highland Games at Macdonald Park, on July 31.

Foremost contenders for the aggregate trophies are Bob Hutchison, among the men, and Pat Fleming, among the women. Hutchison missed qualifying by half a step for the British Columbia sprint team at the Olympic Trials. Still a junior, he has improved rapidly, and could take the title held by Harry Mitchell, British Columbia sprint king, last season.

Miss Silburn ran her fastest time in the 200 metres at the zone four trials in Vancouver, but lost her chance for the trip when the win- [illegible] She is favored to lift the high jump honors also, having finished second to Shirley Gordon at Vancouver.

Bruce Humber, coach of the Y.M.C.A. stars, is continuing workouts at the High School each Tuesday and Thursday evening, concentrating on the younger athletes Rising stars, capable of bringing victories to Victoria, include Rafael Duke, Gordy Pynn, Dawn Josephs, Adrienne Taylor and Lynn Newton

Hutchison, Duke and Pynn teamed with Mitchell at the Vancouver Police Sports to retain the "Y's" undefeated record in the 400 metre sprint relay, covering the distance in a sizzling 44.4.

The International Pacific Coast open piping and highland dancing competitions will again be a feature of the games Pipers and dancers from Seattle, Vancouver, Victoria and other points have already signified their intentions of entering the competitions.

Entry forms are available and may be obtained from Secretary John Mackay, at E 5128.

Satchel Paige To Pitch For Cleveland

CLEVELAND, July 7 (AP). — The pennant-chasing Cleveland Indians today signed that old veteran, Satchel Paige, as a relief pitcher.

The tall, lean hurler, who has had a fabulous career in the negro leagues and the exhibition circuit, put on a major league uniform for the first time today. But he isn't scared. He summed it all up.

"I'm starting my major league career with one thing in my favor, anyway. I won't be afraid of anybody I see in that batter's box. I've been around too long for that."

Leroy (Satchel) Paige has fogged his "hurry up" ball and "bat dodger" past major leaguers in many an exhibition game for years

His age has been estimated variously in the 40's and even 50's.

But whatever age he admits to, Bill Veeck bought Paige's contract from Kansas City Monarchs of the Negro American League How much Satchel will be paid wasn't told But his recent earnings have been estimated at upwards of $30,000 annually.

During the last two decades the Satchel has made most of the major leaguers admit he is one of the all-time great hurlers.

Last Fall Paige faced Feller's touring all-star assortment in Los Angeles to win an 8-0 decision in which he struck out 15

Three other negroes now are in the major leagues — Larry Doby of the Indians and Jackie Robinson and Roy Campanella of Brooklyn Dodgers.

Kittle Defiant In Fight Talk

SPOKANE, July 7 (AP). — The Yakima Packers don't like the basement of the Western International Baseball League and don't intend to stay there

"The Packers will be out of the cellar and climbing in less than two weeks," Manager Kuh Kittle told Spokane Sportswriters and Broadcasters' Association today.

Dick Richards, one of the Packers' owners, attributed part of the club's misfortune during the season to the fact it has many young and inexperienced players.

Canadians Do Well at Bisley

BISLEY CAMP, England, July 7 (CP) — A trio of Canadian marksmen scored a perfect 35 today at 500 and 200 yards on Bisley's crowded ranges in tune-up practices for Saturday's opening major event of the Empire meeting of the National Rifle Association.

Sgt. Martin Ostergaard, a blond Calgary carpenter, registered perfect scores at both ranges. Capt. R. W. Hapton scored a possible at 200 yards as did Capt. C. W. Spencer, also of Ottawa, at 500 yards. Neither Ostergaard nor Hapton is a member of the official Canadian army team.

A smattering of 34's and 33's among the Canadian marksmen indicate that they were lining up their sights and proving their rifles but all are willing to admit that Bisley is "tough."

In earlier sweepstakes practices, Major A E Gormley of Charlottetown, won a match and a prize of £2 ($8), with a 34 at 600 yards. W. E. George of Winnipeg, posted 33 at 300 yards for a first prize of nine shillings and Ostergaard, Flt.-Lt. D Reynolds of Ottawa, and C.S.M. N. J McLeod of Toronto, all took third money at distances up to 1,000 yards with scores just one to three under the possible 35.

Matches today were given over mainly to school and British services competition.

The Canadian challenge shield was won by a team from H.M.S Pembroke with 673.

Dubois Makes Bid For Belgian Team

WINNIPEG, July 7 (AP) — It's up to Belgian rowing officials now to decide if Winnipeg's Theo Dubois, holder of the United States singles rowing title, will represent his native Belgium in the Olympics.

Dubois said tonight authorities of the Belgian Olympic committee had cabled advising him that his application had been forwarded to the Belgian Rowing Federation. The cable said he would be notified in due course of the outcome

Dubois recently won the Canadian singles Olympics tryouts at St. Catharines, Ont. His bid to defend his singles crown at Princeton was rejected by the United States National Association of Amateur Oarsmen because it arrived too late.

Solomons Easy Victim

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP) — Jackie Solomons, 139, South African lightweight title claimant from Johannesburg, lasted only one minute and five seconds of the first round in his scheduled 10-rounder with Chicago's Johnnie Bratton last night.

Bratton sent Solomons down for an eight-count within 30 seconds after the fight started. A combination of lefts and rights floored the South African again. He was up a split second after taking a 10-count. He said an injured ankle kept him from arising before the full count.

The Ex-R.A.F. cricket team will hold a practice at Macdonald Park tonight at 7 o'clock. All players and prospective players are asked to attend.

Crowds Visit National Motors

The showrooms of The National Motors, 815 Yates Street, have been a busy place during the past week. The announcement of the new '49 Ford, which went on display last Friday has brought motorists and would-be owners flocking to the National to see and compare the sensational new models. Not for a long time has the arrival of a new model drawn so much attention and public interest, and the crowds who packed the showrooms on the opening day prove that, despite unavoidable delays in arrival, the Ford "Forty-Niner" is the car of the moment.

This latest scion of the famous Ford line more than lives up to the rumors that travelled before it. Broader, lower to the road, new wide, sofa-seats, graceful, sweeping design and a 100-horsepower engine that has new economy features makes it hard to realize that here is the aristocratic descendant of the old-time "T" model Ford ***

Washington Marksmen Coming For Trap and Skeet Title Meet

The Victoria Gun Club's annual championship tournament at the Albert Head grounds on Saturday and Sunday has drawn entries of leading trap and skeet marksmen from Washington, Vancouver, New Westminster and Up-Island clubs.

Heading the visiting list are Charlie Morton, Yakima; Roy Geil, Tonasket; Stewart Prey, Mount Vernon, R. Payne and son, Anacortes, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ellifson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wall, Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Hendershot, and Mr and Mrs. Orville Painter, all from Ohelan.

Willard Cooper, New Westminster, British Columbia skeet champion, will meet tough competition from Garney Carter, New Westminster, Herb Sabine, Vancouver; and Up-Island marksmen, J. S. Robertson, Jim Wrean, S Torkko, Joe Garner and Jack Beban.

Top local shots competing include Lou Horth, Ted Bailey, Jack Roach, Ernie Hasenfratz, Russ Horton, John Wenger, Roger Montieth, Ernie Todd, Arthur Turner, Harold Moon, G. S. Ahern, Clark Atchison, Charlie Pears, Bill Dalziel, Jr, Dr A. D. Betchtel, the Zacarrelli brothers and others.

Competitions will open each day at 10:00 a.m. and continue until dusk. Trap events will be shot on Saturday and skeets on Sunday.

Premier awards are the E. W Hamber Perpetual Trophy, together with a club permanent trophy and the B.C.R.A. silver badge, for the British Columbia 100-bird skeet all-gauge resident championship and the E. D. Todd Perpetual Trophy and replica for permanent possession for the British Columbia championship, all-gauge open, to include 50 trap targets and 50 skeets.

Ontario Open Starts Today

SCARBORO GOLF CLUB, Toronto, July 7 (CP) — Sixty-nine professionals and 60 amateurs are entered in the Ontario Open Golf Tournament which gets under way over Scarboro's tough par 71 layout tomorrow.

Pre-tournament favorite is Defending Champion Bob Gray, the home professional. Other favorites are Bill Kerr, Montreal Beaconsfield; Jules Huot, Laval-Sur-le-Lac; Stan Horne, Montreal Islemere; Gordon Brydson, Toronto Mississauga, and Bill Ezinicki, Winnipeg.

The tournament is a 54-hole medal play limit—a return to the pre-war distance. The low 60 players and those with tie scores after tomorrow's 18-hole play qualify for the 36-hole stretch Friday.

Calgary Feature Won by Last Sun

CALGARY, July 7 (CP). — The veteran campaigner, Last Sun, came on with a rush down the home stretch today to capture the $1,000 E. D. Adams Birthday Purse on the third day of the six-day Calgary Stampede race meet.

The 11-year-old brown gelding, owned by W. J. Yates of Calgary, trailed far behind the leaders at the start but began to improve his position in the backstretch and overtook Craiglagh and Breezy Somers before the wire.

A photograph was required to place Craiglagh ahead of Breezy Somers for place position. The winner returned $5.65, $3.85 and $2.65 across the board.

Lillian B came down in front in the opening race to combine with Beverly Lady, winner of the second, for a small $12.10 daily double

Sister Dolas and Roman Emperor returned a $13.70 quinella in the seventh.

To Pay W.I.L. $50

TACOMA, July 7 (AP) — Robert B Abel, president of the Western International Baseball League, said today he had fined Richard Richards, Yakima Club President, $50 for "abusive language" directed at Umpires Frank Dehaney and Jerry Mathieu in a recent game.

National Loop Selects Six Top Pitchers

NEW YORK, July 7 (AP) — The National League named only six pitchers to its all-star baseball squad today but picked four slugging third basemen in hopes of overpowering the American League in the annual game at St. Louis next Tuesday.

Customarily eight pitchers are [illegible] more than three innings.

This streamlining enabled the senior circuit to select four third basemen instead of the usual pair. The extra hot corner men are Sid Gordon of New York Giants and Bob Elliott of Boston Braves

The National League, still smarting under the sting of 10 beatings in 14 clashes with its rivals, will present a home run hitting aggregation from stem to stern. The 26-man squad already boasts 146 home runs.

The six-man pitching staff with the unenviable task of stopping William and company, will consist of Righthanders Ralph Branca (10-6), Brooklyn; John Sain (10-6), Boston Braves, Elmer Riddle (5-3), Pittsburgh, Ewell Blackwell (5-5), Cincinnati, and Southpaws Harry Brecheen (8-5), St. Louis Cardinals, and Johnny Schmitz (7-5), Chicago Cubs. All but Riddle are veterans of all-star competition.

Leo Durocher, manager of the Dodgers, who will pilot the all-stars, must use the starting line-up designated by the fans for the first three innings The remainder of the squad follows closely the fan voting

Sets Race Record

GOSHEN, N.Y., July 7 (AP) — Sidney Hanover, owned by L. L. Herrin of Charlotte, N.C., won the $10,000 Titan free for all at Historic Park today as a three-heat world's record was set for a half-mile track.

After finishing seventh in the first race, Sidney Hanover came back to win the second and third heats The winning times were 2:02 2-5, 2:03 and 2:03 4-5, totaling 6:09 1-5. The former record of 6:11 for three heats was held by Scotland's Comet.

JOKERS' LINE-UP

Jokers' line-up for the lacrosse game against J. B. A. A. tonight follows: Andrews, Thomas, McMillan, Temple, Ellis, Douglas, McLellan, Ovcharick, Banks, Harding, Joyce, Stewart, Scothry and Brown.

DINING SUITES

A modern nine-piece dining suite by "Krug." This suite is like new and has everything that can be desired in a quality dining suite, including leather-seated chairs, refectory table, buffet and small china cabinet. We are asking less than half the new price, our price is $129. Also an up-to-the-minute nine-piece dining suite in walnut. This one is in the smart "waterfall" styling. Price $179. And an eight-piece walnut dining suite priced much below its actual value at $87.00. Two almost new six-piece dinette suites in the very popular "natural" finish. These represent very good value at $87.50 and $77.50. Whether it's for the dining-room, bedroom, living-room, kitchen, attic or basement, folks are discovering that to buy, sell or trade they can do no better than the Retail Warehouse way. When you have articles for sale, please phone. Our number is G 4813 and we pay fair prices for spot cash. Thanks a lot.

A CHANGE IN OUR NAME
After Considerable Thought and Deliberation We Have Decided To Change Our Store Name.
THE NEW NAME IS TO BE
HOLMAN & CANNON USED FURNITURE
Naturally, it will take a little time for us and our customers to become familiar with this new name, but we believe, through the customers of Tom Cannon and those of Mark Holman known as "Mack at Gray's," everyone should get a clear picture of the change this new name implies, in a short time.

Bar Association Meeting Opens Today in Victoria

Annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association, British Columbia section, opens at 10 a.m. today in the Empress Hotel. It will be followed tomorrow by the annual meeting of the Law Society of British Columbia.

Some 120 members of the legal profession from all over British Columbia will gather in Victoria for the two meetings.

Registration of those attending the Bar Association meeting will take place at 9 a.m. in the lower lounge of the Empress Hotel. Chairman for the 10 a.m. opening session will be J. A. Campbell, K.C.

Hon. Gordon Sloan, chief justice, Hon. Wendell B. Farris, chief justice of the British Columbia Supreme Court, Hon. Gordon S. Wismer, Attorney-General and Minister of Labor, Mayor Percy E. George and [illegible] O'Brian, Law Society treasurer, will welcome delegates. Frank E. Holman, president-elect of the American Bar Association, will be among those replying.

Election of officers and reports will feature the 11 a.m. business session.

Dean Judson P. Falknor of University of Washington's law faculty will speak at a luncheon in Crystal Garden at 1:30 p.m. Following the afternoon business session, the association will hold a dinner at Colwood Golf Club. Mr. Holman will speak.

Amendments to the Legal Professions Act and proposals to amend divorce laws will be among topics at Friday's Law Society meeting. Chairman will be C. M. O'Brian, K.C.

Sir Robert Holland will speak on "Revisions of the United Nations Charter" at a banquet in the Union Club on Friday evening.

Would Build More Ships In Dominion

Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council urged last night that ships operating from Canadian ports be built in Canada.

At its meeting in the Labor Hall, 602 Broughton Street, the council decided to send a delegation to meet Hon. R. W. Mayhew, M.P., on his arrival in Victoria. The delegation will seek to enlist Mr. Mayhew's aid in keeping shipbuilding at home.

Letters to the Dominion Government and Greater Victoria School Board will urge immediate construction of Victoria's new post office an new school buildings. Ample labor supply is available, a resolution stated.

The council protested against B.C. Electric's request for increased fares, and demanded retention of weekly passes at an increase not to exceed 20 per cent. The resolution will be forwarded to Public Utilities Commission, the City Council, and the Greater Victoria Transportation Committee.

The council's recently-sponsored credit union has been granted a charter. Members of all affiliated unions may join.

Gerry Proud, agent for Seafarer's International Union, reported that a satisfactory agreement had been reached with Westward Shipping Co. He also praised the co-operative attitude of B.C. Coast Steamship Service.

General Strike Aim of Group

WELLAND, Ont., July 7 (CP). — The Niagara United Labor committee was called upon last night to set its sights on "a general strike" in Canada in support of the striking Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.).

The committee, which embraces A.F.L. and C.I.O. unions in the Niagara district, will hold a rank-and-file membership meeting to discuss possibility of a token strike.

"If we call conferences, pool our resources, this movement could spread to a general strike throughout Canada that would be effective in forcing the Government to take action in this dispute," said George Gare, international representative of United Chemical Workers.

LIFE'S LIKE THAT By Fred Neher

"My wife claims the Government is interfering in her marriage . . . Taking out the taxes before she gets her hands on the money!"

A six-spade contract would have been ironclad, and in view of the outcome, South should have been satisfied with that contract. However, since this was match-point duplicate, he wanted to make the biggest trick score possible, and therefore chose the tougher contract of six no trump.

West opened the club jack. South won, cashed his spades, then tried for a break in hearts by leading out the ace, king and queen. The unlikely 3-3 break failed to materialize, however, and since West had held on to his hearts and clubs, discarding two diamonds on the spades, the contract was hopeless.

South should have anticipated that the heart suit might not break perfectly, and to increase his chances substantially, he should have led his low diamond very early in the play. After regaining the lead he would cash the four spades, the diamond ace and then the three top hearts. Meanwhile, West would have found himself squeezed out of either his heart or his club stopper, and 12 tricks would inevitably go to South.

The duck of a diamond was vital so that if either defender had the stopper in clubs and hearts, the squeeze would operate against him. This preliminary concession of a trick termed by experts "rectifying the count," is often vital to the execution of a squeeze.

New Equipment Now Approved

In order to speed up its program of public works, Oak Bay Council last night approved purchase of equipment totalling $6,100.

Municipal Engineer A. S. O. Musgrave said the main item of equipment required was a new truck.

"Progress in our public works program is not being made as fast as it should be," declared Councillor George Murdock. He said work on Cadboro Bay Road had been held up because of a lack of materials.

"We have a large amount of road work to do to get our transportation system running properly," commented Councillor P. A. Gibbs.

Plan Parades For Children

Fancy dress parades starting at 2 p.m. Friday will highlight the week's activities on city playgrounds.

Parades will be held at all city parks, with prizes for the best costumes.

Children have taken full advantage of the facilities offered them at the playgrounds this week, officials of the Recreational Council of Greater Victoria reported yesterday. Playgrounds in both the city and Oak Bay have been well attended.

Swimming classes averaged 200 a day, and tennis 200. Other activities include tumbling, leather work, model airplane building, Bible story-telling and drama instruction.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, July 7 (AP). — Wheat came to life and moved ahead a couple of cents in fairly active dealings on the Board of Trade. Corn tried to gather some strength from the wheat advance, but ran into a number of selling bursts which often sent prices below the previous close.

At the Theatres

ATLAS THEATRE It took Canadian-born Lois Maxwell four years to acquire a British accent to appear in London stage productions. Now, for her first screen role at Warner Bros. in "That Hagen Girl," ending tonight at the Atlas Theatre, she had to undo all the good work by shedding the English influence in her speech for an American accent. In the Ronald Reagan-Shirley Temple co-starrer, Miss Maxwell plays the part of a school teacher in a small, middle-[illegible]

CAPITOL THEATRE Family troubles bring about much of the fun of "I Remember Mama," produced by George Stevens for R.K.O. Radio, co-starring Irene Dunne, Barbara Bel Geddes, Oscar Homolka and Philip Dorn. Revolving around the misadventures and economic struggle of a group of Norwegian immigrants in early-day San Francisco, the R.K.O. Radio picture is said to be one of the season's happiest offerings. Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Edgar Bergen, Rudy Valee and Barbara O'Neill are featured in the comedy-drama which is now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

DOMINION THEATRE A tribe of amphibious natives on the coast of Africa threaten the hero in "Tarzan and the Mermaids," newest film adventure of Edgar Rice Burroughs' famous jungle king. Johnny Weissmuller and Brenda Joyce are co-starred, and Linda Christian is featured in the Sol Lesser production. The feature is now showing at the Dominion Theatre.

OAK BAY THEATRE In "Meet John Doe," starring Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck, Capra introduces another wacky character who has no lines at all—yet he is probably one of the standouts of the picture. It's the sign painter, played by Gary Owen, who goes through a long sequence with nary a line to speak. But under Capra's guidance, his pantomime speaks louder—and funnier—than words. The film opens today at the Oak Bay Theatre.

ODEON THEATRE "Casbah," co-starring Yvonne DeCarlo, Tony Martin and Peter Lorre and introducing Marta Toren, is now at the Odeon Theatre. The film, much of which was photographed in the Casbah at Algiers, is a Marston Production released by Universal-International. To assure authenticity for the movie, a company of studio technicians went to the North African port for three weeks of shooting and brought back 25,000 feet of film, about a quarter of which was used in the finished picture.

RIO THEATRE One of the greatest film spectacles ever made, Cecil B. DeMille's production, "The Crusades," arrived today at the Rio Theatre with an impressive cast headed by Academy award winner Loretta Young, Henry Wilcoxon, Ian Keith, Katherine DeMille and C. Aubrey Smith. The Paramount drama should be of enormous interest because many of the embattled towns in today's headlines are the scenes of the spectacular fighting in "The Crusades." The film tells the story of the 12th Century struggle for the Holy Land.

ROYAL THEATRE Macdonald Carey plays a private eye in Paramount's fast-paced comedy, "Hazard," which opens today at the Royal Theatre, but the character is a radical departure from the orthodox investigator. This eye doesn't smoke, drink or swear, and he substitutes charm for a revolver. He does all right with the charm, not only managing to corral runaway Paulette Goddard, but winning her love as well. This is Carey's second film with Miss Goddard.

YORK INTERNATIONAL THEATRE For her role as a gambler in Paramount's Technicolor spectacle, "California," Barbara Stanwyck studied the manipulation of cards under the tutelage of Harry Mendoza, noted magician and card trickster. "California," now at the York International Cinema, co-stars Miss Stanwyck with Ray Milland and Barry Fitzgerald.

Tree surgery dates back to the 18th century.

MYSTERY HOUSE

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"Nothing?"

"It's the darndest thing," he said. He sat down too, and locked his arms tight against his body. "It seems to me that the waves are really getting quieter," he observed. "By morning we ought to be able to get ourselves to shore."

"Barnes, if we did—don't think I'm a baby," Page said in a faltering tone, "but if we did, we'd only be at Mystery House. We'd get no help there! If they were all gone we'd have to walk four miles to the farm."

"We could walk it. Or we'd find enough left at the house to keep us going. They won't have taken every can of cat food, every half-jar of jelly!"

Page made no reply. She was conscious of a sharp pain at the mere mention of food. It was everywhere in the world, cans of it, tables laden with it, country expeditions where women were opening boxes of sandwiches and layer cakes, pouring coffee. Bread and butter—delicious unbelievable bread and butter was in every house! And yet when one was half a mile away from food, [illegible] teeth of rocks in between, it vanished into distance like something that had never been real, that had always been a dream. Life fought hard with her, and every fibre of her being rebelled against this slow loss of the battle, inch by inch.

It was night in the cave. No use to wonder about the fog-drenched Rock Island now, signalling, calling, watching. Her voice was tired anyway, and her throat sore. Barnes put wood on the little fire in the cave. Its smoke made straight for her eyes and she shut them on the dim interior, on the form in the shadows that was Lynn, on Barnes haggard face [illegible] in the dull glow.

"What time do you suppose it is, Barnes?"

She saw him stretch his arm to get the watch, hold it close to the firelight.

"Twenty minutes past five."

"On what is, I believe, our last night here," Page said steadily. She made herself say it, she could not think what it meant.

"I believe so. I somehow think we'll get off tomorrow."

Page curled her arm about a jutting bit of mossy rock, put her face down upon it. He shoulders ached with the first approaching of the night cold. This was going to be a bitter night. But as Barnes reminded her after awhile, that meant a clear day tomorrow. Somewhere in the endless black hours she saw his silhouette against the mouth of the cave. He was looking out.

"Stars!" he said triumphantly.

And the morning, sure enough, was brightly sunny, with a quieter sea. They must make a try for the shore today, Barnes said. If anyone at Mystery House saw them approaching on their propelled logs they might get help.

"They don't want us to land, Barnes," Page said, dragging herself about weakly in the first revivifying rays of the sun.

"I think they're all gone. I think the Japs or perhaps some of the Chinese might be there."

While they talked they had been [illegible] the Rock, on the little promontory they called Beacon Hill, where they kept their signal fire burning day and night. Now just as they turned to return to the cave, Barnes in a strange hushed tone said the single syllable of Page's name.

Her back as to the sea. She turned and stood beside him, and for a long moment neither spoke. Page wavered a little against the man's shoulder, and he put his arm about her.

"Yes sir, that's it!" Barnes presently said, clearing his throat.

"We thought so before," Page reminded him, in a low voice that trembled. Neither moved his eyes from the blue sea that was flooded with morning sunshine.

"Steady," Barnes said, his own tone not steady. Page laughed a quick shaken laugh that had tears in it.

Two miles away toward the west a big steamer had stopped in her course, she was moving again now, but straight for the shore. Her disturbed wake lay like an arc of lace on the ocean.

"Oh, no!" Page said in a whisper.

"They've seen us, Page." Barnes was recklessly piling wood on the slumbering fire. A plume of smoke went wavering up into the blue sunshiny air. He and Page ran up the slanting face of the Rock between the scrubby brush and dwarfed oaks, silhouetted themselves against the sky, screaming, gesturing. The girl was crying hysterically.

"They've seen us! They're coming!"

The heavenly message of a ship's whistle broke in through the sea-bird crying and the endless washing of the waves.

"That's it!" Barnes said huskily. Page was crying, she did not speak. Braced together by his arm, they never moved their eyes from the white swan that was slowly growing larger and larger against the sea.

"They may decide we're just picnickers and go away!" the girl whispered.

"They won't," Barnes said.

Nearer, nearer. The ship was heading straight for the Rock. She heaved to, a quarter of a mile away. Barnes had run down to the fire for a flaming branch. He waved it above his head.

When, panting with weakness, Page joined him, he caught at her arm, faced her about toward the ocean.

"The man up there on the bridge has glasses!" he said on a broken shout.

"Yes, I could see that. They're answering!"

"See those fellows up there—toward the right?"

"I can just see them moving."

"Letting down a boat," Barnes said, in a tone almost reverent. Page reeled against his shoulder and he held her tight, kissing her hair and her forehead, trying to laugh. "Don't cry, dear!" he said. "You've been so brave. There's nothing to cry about now!"

"I know," Page sobbed, "but I can't help crying! People are so good! To stop their boat and take so much trouble . . ."

Throne Speech Stresses Problems Facing Victims of Fraser Floods

The Throne Speech, delivered at the Legislature yesterday by Chief Justice Gordon McGregor Sloan in the absence of His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks, follows.

"Members of the Legislative Assembly:

"In opening the Fourth Session of the Twenty-first Parliament of [illegible] purpose of dealing with flood matters, I do so with a full realization of the urgency that exists for making adequate provision to meet the varied and distressing problems inflicted on the people by the disastrous floods which have caused such widespread damage throughout the province, particularly in the Fraser River Valley.

"Never before in the history of Canada has so much misery and distress or loss of property been caused by flood.

"It is significant, in appreciating its proportions, to observe that the Dominion Government has interpreted as a national disaster the calamity which befell the Fraser [illegible]

"I wish to express my deepest sympathy for those unhappy men and women who, with their children, have suffered loss of house and home for so long. All of us share their anxiety as they view the devastation and seek to re-establish themselves with the assistance tendered to them by the Governments of Canada and British Columbia.

"It is with gratification that I observe the agreements reached between my Government and that of the Dominion of Canada for the sharing of financial responsibilities in combating the flood, providing for immediate relief, repairing dikes, disposing of water and debris, completely reconstructing the diking [illegible] tion of homes, farm buildings, and fences, and helping in the restoration of farm lands to their former usefulness.

"You will be asked to provide funds and to empower the Government to adopt such measures as may be deemed necessary from time to time to expedite this work.

"I wish to thank all public-spirited citizens who contributed to the British Columbia Flood Relief Fund. Their contributions will assist materially in meeting the needs of the people who have lost personal effects and household furnishings.

"The prompt action of my Government in grappling with the varied problems arising from the flood are to be commended, and I feel sure that you will give thoughtful and sincere consideration to such measures as will be submitted to you.

"I pray the blessing of Divine Providence will attend your deliberations."

Tax Payments In Oak Bay Show Boost

Oak Bay tax collections to the end of June, 1948, amounted to $367,627.66, A. D Findlay, municipal treasurer, reported to Oak Bay council last night. During the same period of 1947, the total was only $318,612.

"Our tax collections have been very commendable so far this year," commented Reeve R. A. B. Wootton.

Notice was given the council by the Oak Bay Municipal Employees' Association that Charles A. Peck, 2439 Heron Street, had been appointed to represent the association on the commission established to draw up a new salary schedule for municipal employees.

Representative of the council on the three-man body is G. F. Dunn.

"The two already named to the commission will fill the remaining vacancy," said Reeve Wootton.

Council referred the claim of Mrs. A. K Gordon, 2812 Thorpe Place, for a refund on what she has paid in road tax to the finance commissioner for settlement. Mrs. Gordon said she had been paying road tax for the past several years without realizing that because she was more than 60 years of age she was exempt.

Acting on a request from H. C. F Reston, Oak Bay police chief, council designated Central Avenue from Newport Avenue to Mountjoy Avenue as an arterial highway. It was stated the intersection of Central Avenue and St. Patrick Street presented a special hazard since cars entered Central Avenue without stopping.

Boat, Owner Assumed Lost

The 34-foot trawler Gleam and her owner-captain Chris Friis of Walters Cove, Kyoquot Sound, have been written off as "lost at sea on the West Coast of Vancouver Island," Provincial Police headquarters said yesterday.

Gleam was the object of a search by an air-sea rescue plane from Vancouver June 30 after fishing boats had reported it heading aimlessly out to sea in a storm.

No trace of the vessel or her skipper has been reported since.

Police believe Friis slipped and fell overboard or had a seizure and that when the boat encountered heavy seas it was swamped and sank.

Always Trying

Somebody asked the other day — Would the candy taste better in the new store? One of the things that always keeps a candy-maker interested is trying to improve the assortment.

If larger and more convenient working space will help, then the candy assortment should show improvement.

Nelson Electrical Workers Win Wage Increase of 35 Per Cent

A 35 per cent general wage increase for 20 electrical workers employed by the city of Nelson has been unanimously recommended by a conciliation board, the Labor Relations Board announced yesterday.

The conciliation body included Lloyd G. McKenzie, Victoria barrister, as chairman, Thomas Uphill, M.L.A. for Fernie, and Boyd C. Affleck, member of the Nelson city council.

In presenting the reasons for its conclusions the board stated:

"The city of Nelson has always taken a paternalistic attitude toward its employees, has encouraged and developed a family spirit and has never been wilfully niggardly in paying them. At the same time it is realized that the city has not kept pace with the almost revolutionary upward adjustment of wage rates negotiated in our province in recent years nor fully recognized the extent of increased benefits which have occurred on a very wide scale to our workmen, and have come to be accepted as inevitable."

Threw Chair Draws Fine

Throwing a chair through the window of the Unemployment Insurance Commission office didn't bring any benefits to 40-year-old Patrick Garland.

Garland was fined $25 for the action in police court yesterday, when he pleaded guilty before Magistrate H. C. Hall. He was ordered to pay a $64 repair bill and the fine or go to jail for 12 days.

C. A. Mudge, manager of the Government office, said the accused smashed the window when he was refused a claim. Refusal was made because the office learned that Garland was discharged "for cause" from his last job and was not entitled, under regulations, to unemployment benefits, Mr. Mudge told the court.

Mozart died after completing a requiem mass which so depressed him that he was convinced it was for his own funeral.

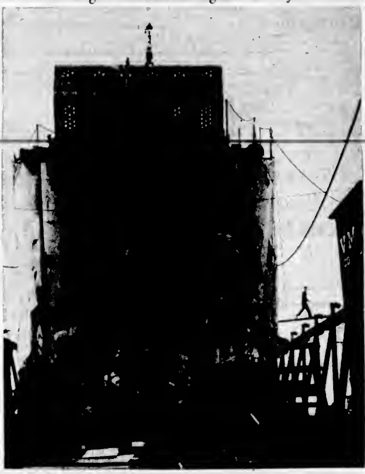
Barge to Become Freighter in City



—Colonist Photo

Reconversion of former United States landing barge into coastal freighter is nearing completion at Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd. Vessel, 203 feet over all, is pictured above on slipway at No. 1 plant of V.M.D., as workmen make bow doors watertight. Doors will open to allow use of large ramp, part of which is seen jutting above bow. Freighter will undergo trial runs Saturday, according to Thomas Moffett, works manager. Delivery will follow soon after.

British Industrialists Survey B.C. Branch Plant Possibilities

Two groups of British industrialists have been in British Columbia during the past week surveying the possibilities of establishing branch plants here, Hon. Leslie H. Eyres, Minister of Trade and Industry stated yesterday.

He said the department was instrumental in bringing them out here as a result of the recent trip of the B.C. buyers' delegation to the United Kingdom.

A. J. Warwick, representing B.S.A. Guns Ltd., a division of the Birmingham Small Arms Company Ltd., was impressed with industrial possibilities in the province, Mr. Eyres said. He gave no indication, however, as to whether the company planned any plant construction here.

A second group surveyed possibilities of establishing a textile plant in British Columbia, Mr. Eyres said. Included were A. Leslie Mollett, managing director of Samuel Cockroft and Company Ltd.; H. L. Beer, director of George Richardson and Company Ltd., Bradford; O. H. Lowe, managing director, British American and Eastern Company Ltd., London, and S. M. Mackinnon, Glasgow.

Mr. Eyres stated he was very optimistic about the results of their findings and felt that in the near future British Columbia could expect an important development from their investigations.

Plan Clean Up

Workmen of Victoria Machinery Depot Co., Ltd., will clean and paint two destroyers now stationed at Esquimalt, it was announced yesterday by Thomas Moffatt, works manager.

H.M.C.S. Crusader will enter the Government drydock July 12, and will be followed by H.M.C.S. Sioux, to enter the basin July 19.

SEEKING HOMES

Not Needed

A suction dredge will not be necessary for preliminary work on Victoria's Inner Harbor, according to Walter S. Miles, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

W. K. Morton, district engineer for the Federal Works Department, recently announced that the only suction dredge on this coast will not be available for some time. It was to be used to remove the heavy covering of silt after large fragments of rock are cleared from the harbor floor.

It was indicated that this rock can be removed by a dipper dredge [illegible] from Vancouver. Mr. Miles believes that there are two of these machines in that city at the present time.

Work on Ship

Below-the-waterline work, including cleaning and painting, will be done on the destroyer Cayuga which is now in the Government drydock. The job, expected to last about a week, is being done by Victoria Machinery Depot.

Need Safety Equipment On All Types of Boats

Marine News

Owners of pleasure boats in and about Victoria would be well advised to make a check on safety equipment and general condition of their vessels.

Although no concentrated campaign is being conducted law-enforcing agencies are empowered to fine boat owners not complying with various safety regulations.

Everything from an inboard motor [illegible] cabin cruisers should carry a lifebuoy of standard and approved pattern, according to regulations.

"Sunday sailors" of Vancouver have been checked up by police authorities in the past several days, and several boat owners may face prosecution.

It is imperative that all vessels be properly equipped with fire fighting and life saving equipment. Information relative to regulations governing vessels of this type can be obtained at the office of the [illegible] Wharf Street.

Deny Charge

Waterfront employers of the Seattle-Puget Sound area accused C.I.O. longshore officials yesterday of "flouting" a Federal Court non-strike injunction by causing a slowdown. A union spokesman denied it.

Merle G. Ringenberg, manager of the Waterfront Employers of Washington, said in a statement a slowdown by members of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union has reduced cargo handling here by about one-third.

William Gettings, union international representative, said the statement "is not true."

He accused the employers of starting a "speedup" by hiring fewer men to do specified work after a Federal Court in San Francisco granted an 80-day injunction last week against a threatened Pacific Coast longshore strike.

More Shrimp

Imports of shrimp from Mexico to the United States for the first four months of this year have totaled 7,790,354 pounds, according to a report from the United States Fish and Wildlife Service. This is an increase of 56 per cent over the imports of shrimp for the same period last year.

Brazil nuts are the seeds of a large tree which grows throughout tropical America.

Europe Bound

Among a large list of West Coast passengers sailing in the Swedish American motorliner Stockholm to Sweden and the European Mainland are Eddie Cantor, radio and movie star, with Mrs. Cantor; Harry Lundeberg, president of the Seafarers' International Union; and Harry Weisberger, vice-president of the union. The ship left New York Saturday.

B.C. SURVEYS SCHEDULED

VICTORIA (CP).—Extensive aerial surveys for mapping of British Columbia will be carried out this Summer, it was announced by Hon. E. T. [illegible] ests. Ground parties will also operate in various sections of the province.

RAPID RECOVERY

LONDON (CP).—Although Britain's merchant navy lost more than 11,000,000 tons of shipping during the Second World War, it is now only 1,000,000 tons short of prewar strength. Just before the war Britain had a gross of more than 16,000,000 tons.
